

PRESIDENTIAL INVITATION—Leroy Foerster is shown presenting an invitation to President David H. Morgan inviting him to attend the Air Force Ball Nov. 2. Brad Crockett is looking on.

Four Aggies Attend National Convention

Ray Noble, Sid King, Robert Glazener, and B. M. Gallaway, of the civil engineering department, attended the 51st national convention of Tau Beta Pi, a scholastic honor society for engineers, held at Kansas university, Lawrence, Kansas, Oct. 10-13.

A proposal to admit women to membership in Tau Beta Pi was offered. The national meeting accepted the proposal for the third time in recent years, although its action is subject to ratification by student members of the Association's 99 chapters.

A major event of the convention was the initiation and banquet. Herbert Hoover Jr., Under-Secretary of State of the United States, delivered an address on "The Challenge of Engineering", with special reference to world affairs.

The 1957 national meeting will be held at Wisconsin University and Marquette University.

Tau Beta Pi is a national society for engineers founded in 1885. It has 99 undergraduate chapters in U. S. engineering colleges, of which only three were unrepresented at the 1956 convention. Over 88,000 initiated members constitute the Association.

Students are elected to membership by chapters from the top 20 per cent (scholastically) of their engineering classes on the basis of character and service to their colleges.

Judging Teams Return From Kansas City

The A&M senior livestock judging team placed ninth in the American Royal Livestock Judging contest held in Kansas City Saturday.

The Aggies came out higher than has any A&M team in previous years. They placed fourth in horses and seventh in swine. Teams from 21 colleges competed.

Team members were Joe Ross, Bud Fichte, Pat Garner, Jim Renick, J. C. Gregory and Bobby Wakefield was alternate. Ross was third high individual in the contest. The team is coached by J. W. Gossett, of the Animal Husbandry Department.

The senior Wools Judging Team, coached by Dr. T. D. Watkins, of the Animal Husbandry Department, placed third. Team members and their respective placings in the contest were Cecil Skaggs, seventh; Glenn Chandler, eighth; and Jimmy McMullan, tenth. The group was treated to supper Sunday evening by the Kansas City A&M Club.

Counselors Slate Exchange Visits

Counselors of the basic division, civilian dormitories, and tactical officers will exchange visits to learn of each other's problems and jobs, according to the Office of Student Personnel Services.

This counselor exchange program replaces the orientation seminars held last year.

Two hour visits in actual working conditions have been suggested by Col. Davis, commandant; C. H. Ramsdell, assistant dean of the basic division; and Bennie A. Zimm, head of student affairs.

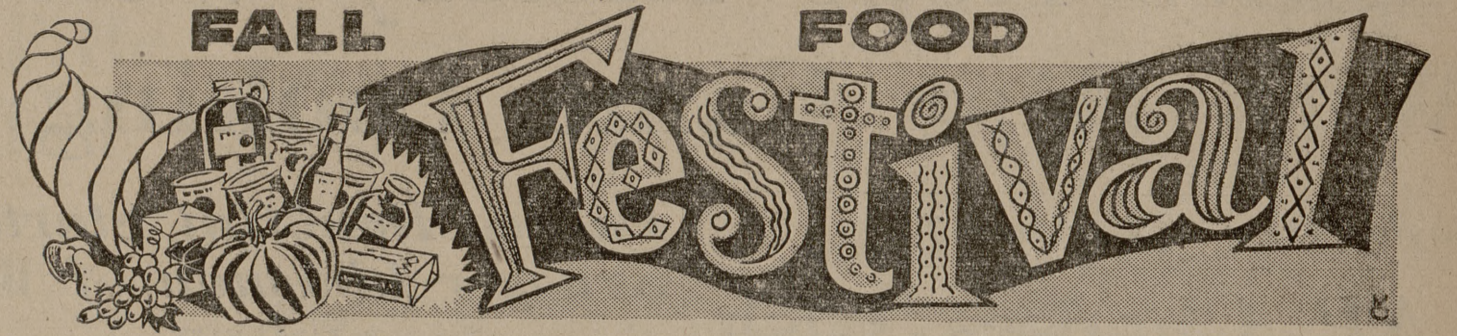

This time will be spent in observing office activities and orienting visitors of the other two areas.

'Stairway to Stars' Theme of AF Ball

"Stairway to the Stars" will be the theme for the Air Force Ball to be held in Sbis hall, Nov. 2.

A sweetheart will be chosen at the ball, a highlight of Fall Military ceremonies, Nov. 3.

Dr. David H. Morgan, president, has been presented on invitation to the dance. The invitation list includes all Air Force cadets, seniors in the Army ROTC, their dates and college officials.
