

Adlai Says GOP Is Using Deceit

NEW YORK, (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson said last night the Republicans were waging "a campaign of deceit unmatched in U.S. politics."

"I don't mind telling you that I am good and mad," the Democratic presidential nominee told a party rally at White Plains, in neighboring Westchester County.

"Plenty of Americans are. We ought to be. The Republicans have been treating the American people like so many children who can be put to sleep with a lullaby," he added.

Stevenson said the Democrats have been partisan in the American political tradition "but we haven't tried to deceive the people on the issues on matters of life and death and of war and peace. The Republicans have!"

Stevenson said the Democrats "told the people for the first time of the danger to us and our children in continued H-bomb tests."

"Two hundred and seventy of the nation's leading nuclear scientists have backed up this warning," he said. "You know these men would not speak out as they have if they didn't feel deeply that mankind is taking a terrible chance with a terrible new force."

Stevenson said Republicans had "sneered" at this warning by calling it "nonsense" and "folly."

"Don't listen to the Democrats, they say," Stevenson went on. "Just trust Ike."

Time and time again in his speech Stevenson ironically used the phrase "just trust Ike."

Stevenson said the Democrats "have told the people why Vice-President Richard Nixon is not a man to be trusted with the most powerful office in the world."

"We have pointed out the blunt and inescapable fact that this hero of the Republican Old Guard is in line for the presidency of the United States—an office he could never attain on his own merit," Stevenson said.
