CAMPUS CLEANERS

"Treats" for the world's sick and hungry children, rather than goodies for themselves—that's what Halloween doorbell ringers wearing the CROP or UNICEF symbol will ask of College Station and south Bryan residents Wednesday night.

Sponsors of the project to collect funds for underprivileged youngsters abroad are the College Station Ministerial Association and the Religious Workers Association. Each church will have a "round up" party for its participants, and all returns will be made to the treasurer of the RWA, the Rev. Cliff Harris.

CROP is the Christian Rural Overseas Program under which government surpluses are sent to areas of need designated by Church World Service.

UNICEF stands for the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund, an organization dedicated to helping needy children throughout the world by supplying food, medicine and medical care.

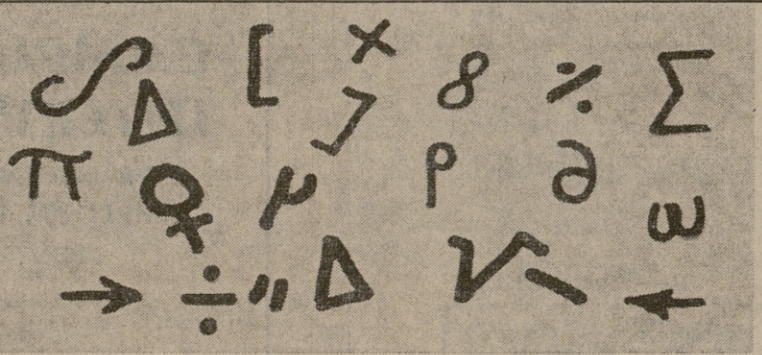

Among those who will benefit from contributions to CROP will be the neediest of India's 45 million flood victims, Hong Kong's 1,500,000 Chinese refugees, Korean war orphans, displaced Arabs, refugees in Turkey, Greece, Italy, Germany and Austria.

Cost of distributing government food surpluses through CROP is estimated at less than a cent a pound.

Here's what donations to UNICEF can provide: 1 cent, vaccine to protect a child from tuberculosis; 5 cents, penicillin to cure a child of yaws; 10 cents, nearly 60 glasses of milk; 13 cents, DDT to protect a child from malaria for one year.

Each country assisted through this program matches UNICEF dollars two to one, so that each dollar contributed does the work of three.

Social Whirl

A get-acquainted Halloween party is planned by the Agricultural Education Wives Club this evening at 7:30 in the home of Mrs. Henry Ross, 903 E. 32nd St., Bryan. Hostesses will be Mrs. Henry Ross, Mrs. J. D. Gray, and Mrs. Earl Knebel. All new agricultural education wives are cordially invited.

Plans for the Aggie Wives Bowling League have been changed due to the fact many clubs do not have enough interested members to form teams. For this reason, all members of the various Aggie wives clubs are invited to bowl with the league, but there will be no competition among teams. Four alleys will be reserved for Aggie wives the second and fourth Fridays of each month at 7:30 p. m. in the Memorial Student Center. The first meeting of the league was held last Friday evening.

Industrial Engineering Wives will hold election of officers at their 7:30 meeting tonight in room 2-C of the Memorial Student Center.

IT'S FOR REAL! by Chester Field

MEMORIES

She looked in the mirror to see if she was still the girl she used to be . . . Miss Sanitation '53.

That was the day she reigned supreme. That was the day they made her queen of sanitation—and sewers, too! The happiest day she ever knew!

"Life," she sighed, "is never the same After a girl has known real fame; After a girl has been like me . . . Miss Sanitation '53."
