

Club Honors New Members

Freshman mothers were honored guests when the Brazos County A&M Mothers Club met Thursday afternoon in the YMCA lounge.

Dr. C. R. Lyons gave an interesting talk on the College Hospital. The group discussed plans for the game party to be held Thursday, Nov. 8, at the A&M Presbyterian Church recreation hall. The president, Mrs. Don Young, conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. Fred Weick poured at the tea table attractively decorated with fall berries. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Charles LaMotte, Mrs. Calvin Moore, Mrs. S. H. Hopkins, and Mrs. C. A. Bonnen.

Just for Women

Local Youngsters To Share Treats With Needy Children

When College Station doorbells ring tonight, residents may hear "Trick or Treat" for UNICEF or CROP.

For the most part, the Halloween pranks of former years are no more. But one trick remains—the magical trick performed by the coins contributed to the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund and to the Christian Rural Overseas Program.

The pennies, nickles and dimes dropped into UNICEF-CROP cartons will supply needed milk and essential drugs for countries lacking in resources and skills to solve the basic health and welfare problems of their children.

So the magic of tonight's "Tricks" for UNICEF and CROP will have two-fold meaning. While helping American children to learn the joy of giving and sharing, they will also enable UNICEF and CROP to perform their miracles for all the world's children.

Church representatives and their responsibilities in connection with the local CROP-UNICEF program are Mrs. John McNeely and Mrs. W. C. Dahlkemper, A&M Methodist Church, radio releases; Mrs. B. D. Thomas and Mrs. R. D. Tarble, Unitarian Fellowship, newspaper publicity;

Mrs. Ethan C. Holt and Mrs. Jim Bevans, Church of Christ, school contacts; Mrs. Harold Sorenson and Mrs. Robert E. Miller, Our Saviour's Lutheran; Mrs. Larry Hayes, A&M Christian; Mrs. H. S. Thigpen and M. L. Cashion, A&M Presbyterian; Mrs. W. M. Heritage and the Rev. Roger Cilley, St. Thomas Episcopal Chapel.

The Rev. Nolan R. Vance of the A&M Methodist Church is chairman of the general committee. Other members are the Rev. Edwin A. Svendsen, Our Saviour's Lutheran Church, and Mont Whitson, minister of the Church of Christ.

Ring The Bells, Woman Suggests

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A vivacious Nashville woman has come up with a bell-ringer to stir Americans out of complacency on election day.

Miss Ruby Lee Adams proposes that bells throughout the land be rung once an hour Nov. 6 to "awaken people to their opportunity and chance to vote." In 1952, she said, only 62.7 per cent of American adults voted in the presidential election.

She first voiced her thoughts in a story published by the Nashville Banner. Copies were sent to fellow members of American Women of Radio and Television. To date, Miss Adams has received hundreds of requests for reprints.

"The reception has been marvelous, simply marvelous," she says.

Briefly, Miss Adams suggests that church bells be sounded in cities and towns, youth groups such as the Boy Scouts press doorbells and radio and television stations ring bells each hour.

How did Miss Adams, a self-employed research specialist, think of her "get out the vote" idea? "I was working in my rose garden when a huckster wagon passed by ringing a bell.

"I wouldn't have been aware of the wagon except for the bell," she said. "I thought what a wonderful thing it would be if we would ring the bells on election day to get out the vote."

The Battalion welcomes, for inclusion in its woman's page, news of weddings and engagements of interest to readers in the College Station area.

Space limitations, however, make it necessary to establish the policy that pictures may be printed only with wedding stories. One-column photographs, of course, will stand the best chance of prompt and sure publication.

For the convenience of persons wishing to include wedding news in The Battalion, information blanks will be available in the office.

Churches Announce Services

Hey, everybody! Here's a new stack of Sticklelers!

HERE'S A STICKLER! WHAT DO YOU CALL THE MINUTES OF A SMOKERS' CONVENTION? (SEE PARAGRAPH AT RIGHT)

WHEN SMOKE FOLK get together, the chatter matter is fine tobacco. Naturally, that means Lucky Strike. Luckies' taste is worth talking about because it comes from fine tobacco—light, mild, good-tasting tobacco that's TOASTED to taste even better. As for the Stickleler, you call the minutes of a smokers' convention a Light-up Write-up. Speaking of light-ups, have you tried a Lucky lately? You'll say it's the best-tasting cigarette you ever smoked!

"IT'S TOASTED" to taste better!

DON'T JUST STAND THERE . . . STICKLE! MAKE '25

Sticklelers are simple riddles with two-word rhyming answers. Both words must have the same number of syllables. (No drawings, please!) We'll shell out $25 for all we use—and for hundreds that never see print. So send stacks of 'em with your name, address, college and class to Happy-Joe-Lucky, Box 67A, Mount Vernon, N. Y.
