

Campus Study Club To Hear Bonney

Warren C. Bonney, Basic Division counselor and assistant professor and director of the College Hospital mental hygiene clinic, will speak on the clinic before members of the Campus Study Club at their meeting Tuesday.

The meeting is scheduled for 3 p. m. in the YMCA. Hostesses for the afternoon will be the Mesdames R. L. Jackson, W. C. Andrews, Otis Miller and W. E. Street.

Prof. Bonney is the author of a number of articles in the field of psychology and holds membership in the American Psychological Assn., American Personnel and Guidance Assn., Texas State Guidance Assn. and the Texas Psychological Assn.

He received his B. A. from Ohio State University in 1948 and his master's degree from North Texas State College two years later. From 1952 to 1954 he did graduate work at the University of Texas.

The mental hygiene clinic of which Prof. Bonney is director was designed to provide psychological therapy for any student desiring it and to serve as a central agency through which the total mental health efforts of the college can be organized.

Fast Fry

OWINGSVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Sweet potatoes were cooked in a hurry on the electric range in the Robert Toy home. Lightning struck the pan of potatoes and cooked them to a crisp. The bolt also burned a hole in the pan and damaged the heating element.

Social Whirl

Hostesses to members of the regular group of the Aggie Wives Bridge Club at their last meeting were Fay Spears and Dorothy Mills. Prizes were won by Lillian Powers, Mary Lyles, Jeannie Crist, and Joan Tietan. Joyce Hanna and LaVern McDonald will entertain the group when it next meets.

The intermediate group met with Ahnell Berens and Janette Clemens. Sue Muir, Lee Cox and Ahnell Berens won prizes. Hostesses for the next meeting will be Jean Sinclair and Patricia Locke.

Barbara Mullen and Audrey Lindner entertained the beginners group. At the next meeting hostesses will be Nancy McMardie and Anne Johnson.

Wildlife Management Wives will hold an organizational meeting at 7:30 p. m. Monday at the home of Mattie Wilkerson, 808-B Cross.

A social meeting of the Agriculture Economics and Sociology Wives Club is planned for 7:30 p. m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Dan Russell, 106 Lee St. All members are asked to bring copies of the constitution for discussion of new amendments.

Attention Girls

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Vanderbilt University now has three male students for each co-ed. "It won't be long" remarked Vice Chancellor Madison Sarratt, "until we can promise every girl who comes to Vanderbilt not only a diploma—but a husband!"

Just for Women Family Favorites

By DOLORES PERRY

(The Perrys—Howard and Dolores and their children, Howard S. III, 10 years old, and Pamela Ann, 9—have been Bryan residents for about four years. Three of those years Mrs. Perry has been employed in the Housing Office on the A&M campus. Her husband, a member of the class of '44, has two degrees from A&M—a B.S. in industrial education and a master's in education. He is Battalion Staff Assistant Officer, 386th Armored Engineer Battalion, Headquarters and Service Co., 49th Division.)

PRALINES

2 cups white sugar
1 cup brown sugar
1 tablespoon white Karo
Pinch salt
2 cups pecans
1/2 stick butter
1 teaspoon vanilla
Mix sugar, Karo and salt and boil until hard ball stage is reached. Add nuts, butter and vanilla. Spoon out onto greased cookie sheet.

CONGEALED SALAD

1 package orange Jello
1 small can crushed pineapple
3 carrots, grated
3 or 4 stalks celery, chopped fine
Prepare Jello the usual way (with 1 cup hot water and 1 cup cold water). Add carrots, pineapple and celery. Place in refrigerator and chill until firm.

BREAD PUDDING

2 cups dry bread crumbs
4 cups milk, scalded
1 tablespoon butter
1/2 teaspoon salt
3/4 cup sugar
4 slightly beaten eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
Soak bread in milk 5 minutes. Add butter, salt and sugar. Pour slowly over eggs, add vanilla and mix well. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) until firm. Serve with a vanilla sauce.

MOLASSES MARLOW

1 envelope unflavored gelatin
1/4 cup lukewarm water
16 marshmallows
1/3 cup molasses
3/4 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup heavy cream
1/2 cup chopped pecans or almonds
Soften gelatin in water. Place marshmallows, molasses, milk and salt in top of double boiler. Add softened gelatin, cover and cook over boiling water until marshmallows melt. Cool in refrigerator until mixture begins to thicken. Whip cream and fold in with nuts. Pour into refrigerator trays and place in freezing compartment 3 to 4 hours. Makes 10 servings.

BARBECUE SAUCE

1/4 pound oleomargarine
1 whole onion, peeled
1/2 lemon
1/4 cup worcestershire sauce
1 teaball filled with pickling spices
1 1/2 bottles catsup
Combine all ingredients and cook slowly about 30 minutes.

Resort Prediction:

Just Plain Black And White Seen On Fashion Horizon

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor
In any season when color is rampant, just plain black and white begins to look awfully, awfully smart.

This is the reasoning of Mr. Mort, the bachelor who turns out dresses by the ton for enthusiastic juniors all over the country. So his new resort collection, forecasting the new look for next summer, puts strong emphasis on sun dresses, play dresses and cocktail dresses in plain white, plain black or a combination of the two. "Nothing dramatizes a good sun-tan like black and white," says this alert authority. "The kind of girl I like to be seen with in the good old summertime is a girl with a golden tan and a white dress that does things in the right places."

Mr. Mort also has a yen for polka dots this season, a group of his most striking resort fashions being various treatments of black and white dots. One style bound to stand out at any resort is a sleeveless patio or cocktail dress of white cotton printed in graduated black polka dots arranged to look like stripes. The Empire look is achieved by narrow black bands which criss-cross under the bust to tie at the waistline in front. Another is of plain white cotton with a harem skirt and a criss-cross band of black and white polka dots wrapping and tying around the midriff. The group includes half a dozen other variations of the black and white theme, all in crisp, easily washable cottons, designed to flatter the youthful figure.

Coeds and Burglars
ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—Coeds who live at the University of New Mexico's new Hokona Hall won't be able to sneak out at night without tripping a burglar alarm. The building is equipped with photoelectric cells at archways leading into two enclosed patios. The cells will set off alarms if someone passes after the 10 p. m. curfew.

Satisfied Customers Won't Let Him Quit

SOUTH HAVEN, Mich. (AP)—A gray-haired farmer in a bright checked shirt hopes this is his last year as a dressmaker.

But Martan of Chicago, designer of women's clothes, is finding it hard to become plain Joseph Martan, fruit farmer with 83 acres of orchard to spray and care for.

Martan closed his elite dress shop in Chicago two years ago and retired to become a farmer. But he found that the customers for whom he had been creating wardrobes since 1918 didn't want him to stop.

When he isn't working his farm, Martan is fashioning fine frocks with the touch that only he can give. In a day of clothing mass production, Martan's skill is in demand by women who can afford his exclusive styling.

As a rule, it's a good idea to melt marshmallows over simmering water. Stirring often hastens the melting process.

Local Observance Planned For World Community Day

"For the sake of my brethren, my kinsmen" will be the theme of World Community Day Friday, which will be observed locally with a service at 9:30 a. m. at the A&M Christian Church.

Offerings taken on World Community Day, sponsored by the United Church Women and the National Council of Churches, will assist in the work of the Department of Inter-church Aid and Service to Refugees of the World Council of Churches and also go toward the support of projects of the United Church Women.

Among those who will be aided are physically handicapped victims of war who need vocational training, aged and sick refugees who may never be able to emigrate, students in Indonesia who are trying to fit themselves to replace the Dutch ministers who withdrew at the time of independence. Also in line for assistance are small Christian hospitals in Southeast Asia in need of equipment, medicines and surgical supplies.

The United Church Women will continue to extend their programs of study and action, with plans to send an observer to the United Nations and to study and support human rights, foreign aid, the admission of refugees, a humane immigration policy, progressive disarmament and the peaceful uses of atomic energy.

In addition to money offerings, those wishing to participate in World Community Day are asked to collect and bring to the various local observances clothes and blankets for "Parcels for Peace" to be sent to India, Pakistan.
