

Happy, Wet In Aggie Dressing Room

WEARING THE SMILES OF VICTORY—Don Watson (left) and John David Crow, take a well-deserved breather after the Turkey Day battle at Memorial Stadium in Austin.

WET AND HOLLERING—after the jinx-breaking win over the Longhorns Thursday afternoon are the remainder of the 1954 "Thin 30" and coaches. The ten graduating seniors from the 1956 Conference champion Fighting Texas Aggie Team and their coaches are (left to right) Willie Zapalac, Jerry Claiborne, Bobby Lockett, Jack Pardee, Dennis Goehring, Smokey Harper, Jim Owens, Lloyd Hale, Bobby Clendennon, Pat James, Don Watson, Paul (Bear) Bryant, Dee Powell, George Gillar, Tom Tipps, Bebes Stallings, Elmer Smith, Phil Cutchin, Bobby Drake Keith, and Sam Bailey.

PORE TEA-SIPS—Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant, very wet and happy at the time this shot was made had just emerged from his umpteenth shot in the shower after the Turkey Bowl game at Austin.

WHEN ONE LEAVES ANOTHER TAKES HIS PLACE—Dennis Goehring and brother Allen (right) congratulate each other after the Memorial Stadium battle with the Texas Tea-Sips.

NOW IT WAS THISAWAY—John David Crow speaks his mind to Mickey Herskowitz of the Houston Post, who almost didn't escape the shower amid the dressing room hilarity following the Aggie win Thursday afternoon which gave A&M their first conference championship after 15 lean years.

TIRED, HAPPY AND VICTORIOUS—Crashing Jack Pardee smiles tiredly following a brilliant display of broken field running which saw Jack climb to top place in kick off returns in the conference with returns of 85 and 50 against the tea-sips.
