

SOCIAL WHIRL

Industrial Education Wives Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. today at the home of Jan Kuykendall, B-20-Z College View. Mrs. C. C. Lawrence will give a demonstration on Christmas gift-wrapping.

Members of the Wildlife Management Wives Club enjoyed a talk on beauty care by Mrs. Renee Abbott at Tuesday night's meeting in the YMCA. Mrs. Abbott, of Edna's Beauty Salon, discussed skin problems and care, make-up, and care and styling of the hair.

During the business meeting which preceded the program, the group discussed plans for the Christmas party to be held jointly with the Fish and Game Club. Since the committee has been unable to obtain a hall as yet, the date for the party was left indefinite.

Officers for the year, elected at a previous meeting of the club, are Lois Porter, president; Joy Roper, vice president; Mattie Wilkerson, secretary-treasurer; Angie Clark, reporter; Jeanette Spears, parliamentarian, and Marie Tiller, representative to the Aggie Wives Council.

A program of slides is planned for Monday night's meeting of the Chemical Engineering Wives Club. The meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in the south solarium of the YMCA.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Harris will show scenes of Cuba, while Virginia Fereday will present slides of Nassau, British West Indies.

A short business meeting is also planned.

Aero Wives will hold their Christmas party at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the Aeronautical Building. Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Weick will show films taken in Europe, and refreshments will be served.

Aggie Wives Bridge Club members will hold their regular end-of-the-season "Bridge-o" party at 7:30 p.m. today in the Memorial Student Center.

Hostesses for the beginning group will be Jo Hemphill and LaJuana Ritch, while Janie Perkins will serve as hostess for the regulars.

There will be no meeting Dec. 13th.

At the Nov. 22 meeting prizes were won by Kathy Rowan, first and traveling slam, and Pat Sprayberry, second, in the regular group. Hostesses were Barbara Jones and Beverly Noak for the regulars and Jean Cunningham and Pat Montgomery for the beginners.

Add cooked noodles to a white sauce seasoned with Worcestershire sauce; turn into a casserole, sprinkle with grated cheese and oven-heat.

Pretty Wrappings Will Add Charm To Yule Presents

AP Newsfeatures

Gift wrappings may be conversation pieces. A pretty one may go a long way in stretching the importance of a gift. A fluffy ribbon bow atop a package or a gift wrap that is especially suitable to the contents of the package may be more fun than the gift itself.

A real intriguing gift wrap for young girls is an angelic one that is charming and simple to make.

Wrap the box in black or charcoal gray paper and secure with cellophane tape.

Plat a piece of pink construction paper into 3-inch folds and cut angel shapes. Use an angel picture as a pattern. When unfolded, you have a strip of six angels holding hands. The wings are cut separately and taped to the back of each angel. Now place them in a semi-circle on top of the box and hold them in place with clear tape.

Tiny birthday candles are taped to each angel's hand for an extra touch. Fluffs of cotton are taped here and there to form floating clouds. There are a variety of other shapes you could cut from folded paper in similar fashion: a row of triangular trees, studded with sequins; gingerbread ladies or snowmen decorated with holiday tape. Almost any Christmas motif will lend itself. Skaters may lend a festive note if you find just the right pattern.

Experiment with your design using newspaper until you get just the right one. Then cut it on the good paper.

Use Christmas ornaments, flowers, glitter and other inexpensive items to add glamor and individuality to your ribboned packages. A red rosebud taped to each ribbon loop may give a special look.

Another cute idea is to dye cotton swabs gay colors and make pinwheel designs. Dye the cotton tips red or green and sprinkle them with glitter. Fasten to your package with cellophane tape. You may also spell out the person's name with these little cotton tips if you are decorating a large package.

HUNGARIAN GOULASH

1 pound hamburger salt, pepper, garlic
3 large fresh green onions, powder to taste
chopped fine 2 small cans tomato sauce
½ green bell pepper, chopped
Brown onions, green pepper and meat, and then add salt, pepper and garlic powder. When this is blended, pour in tomato sauce and then add water (about 1½ cups) till mixture is a little thicker than soup. Simmer for about 45 minutes. Serve over boiled rice. This, with a green salad and hot bread, makes a complete meal.

QUICK AND EASY CHOCOLATE COOKIES
1 package brownie mix 1 cup chopped nuts
½ cup plus 1 tablespoon water
Combine all ingredients, and drop from spoon onto well-greased cookie sheet. Bake about 12 minutes in 350-degree oven. Let cool a few minutes before removing to cookie jar.

FUDGE PIE
4 unbeaten eggs 2 cups sugar
1 stick of butter, or 1 cup ¼ cup cocoa
Beat eggs and sugar together till fluffy. While this is being done, melt butter with cocoa in double boiler. Then pour melted butter mixture in with eggs and sugar, beating steadily. Chopped nuts may be added if desired. Pour the whole mixture into an unbaked pie shell and bake in 350-degree oven until crust is delicately browned. If more than stick of butter is used, cocoa should be increased accordingly.

GREEN PEA SALAD
1 can green peas, drained ¼ cup chopped pimientos
½ cup mayonnaise ¼ cup chopped scallions
2 tablespoons prepared mustard
Mix all ingredients together and chill. Serve on a lettuce leaf as a salad, or use as a vegetable.

MULLIGAN STEW
1 pound lean stew meat 3 medium potatoes, sliced
salt, pepper 3 large carrots, sliced
1 bay leaf 1 small can green peas,
1 big onion, chopped fine drained

Dredge meat, after it has been salted and peppered. Then brown slowly in butter. When browned, add bay leaf and vegetables, and cover with water. Add salt to taste.

Cook this mixture until all vegetables are tender. When you are ready to serve, add a very little thickening of flour and water, if a thicker soup is desired.

This is even better the second day than when first cooked. A can of tomatoes may be added for variety.

Social Whirl
