Aggies Maul Florida State For First Road Win, 83-74

Bears Even Choice Over Detroit Lions

CHICAGO, (AP)—In pro football, there's nothing like "Home Sweet Home."

That appears the chief reason the Bears are a surprise even-money bet with the Detroit Lions in Sunday's Wrigley Field showdown for the Western Division title of the National Football League.

Consider that just two weeks ago, the Lions belted the Bears, 42-10, at Detroit to move a half-game ahead of the Bears, a margin they still hold.

Mehaffey Hits 32 In Third Victory

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (Spl)—Coach Ken Loeffler's Aggies shocked a dedication crowd of 3,500 here last night as they pounded the Florida State Seminoles, 83-74, for their first road victory in 19 tries.

A&M broke Florida State's 23-game victory train on their own court as they rebounded from two previous losses on their trip and cast a shadow on the ceremonies dedicating the new Seminole field house.

Captain George Mehaffey ripped the nets for 32 points, hitting 10 of 18 field goal attempts, 12 of 14 free throws and snatching off 16 rebounds to personally lead the Aggies to their first win away from home under Loeffler. Mehaffey played magnificently, going the entire first half without committing a personal foul. The 6-4 senior left the game after nine minutes of the second half with five personals to a standing ovation.

The Aggies battled the odds to their third victory of the season, pulling their record to 3-4. The Cadets managed but five hours sleep the night before the game after a hard bus ride from Hattiesburg, Miss., to New Orleans, and every man became airsick on the rough ride from New Orleans to Tallahassee.

A&M's three top scorers fouled out. Ken Hutto left the game after 18 minutes of the first half with 14 points and sophomore Neil Swisher, playing with an injured ankle, fouled out midway in the second half after adding 13 to the Aggie total.

HIGH-SCORING SOPH—is A&M's Jack Schwake, who has been high-point man for the Aggies twice this season. Schwake has been ill on the present road trip and is not at his top scoring game.

Bryan's St. Joe In 'Friendship Bowl' Sunday

St. Joseph's school of Bryan will play St. Mary's of Fredericksburg in the "Friendship Bowl" game Sunday afternoon at 2:30 on the A&M Consolidated High School field.

This game, promoted by the Catholic Youth Organization, will decide the championship of the organized parochial school leagues in Texas. The teams are composed of youths in grades six, seven and eight.

St. Joseph's Eagles, coached by Father Valenta, hold an 8-0 record for the season. St. Mary's Apaches, whose coach is A. J. Lath, have an 8-1-0 record.

The Eagles have scored 231 points to their opponents 19, against the Apaches 224 points to their opponents 47. The Eagles' biggest win of the season was over St. Teresa of Houston, holding second place in their league, by a 60-7 score.
