Powell. "It is hard for me, the casual observer, to predict any winner on these merits for both teams seem imbued with the spirit to win."

Captaining the Air Force team will be the three boys selected by their team mates, Pat Patrick, quarterback, Roy Millen, starting guard, and Gale Pruitt the other starting guard.

I'm going to make a prediction that the game will end a 14-14 tie

I promise to love, honor, obey, and to have all our clothes cleaned at — — —

Yule Eve Supper Made Easy

By Cecily Brownstone
Associated Press Food Editor

If cooking a big Christmas dinner lies ahead, you may wish to make Christmas Eve supper a simple affair. In this case, crabmeat and cheeseburgers are a good choice.

With the burgers you might like a winter salad of finely shredded green cabbage, lettuce or romaine, thin celery crescents and small fan-shaped pieces of red (unpeeled) apple. The salad should be tossed with French dressing. For dessert, how about your own Christmas cookies?

We suggest this particular menu because it can, if you wish, be served on paper plates. Go-along coffee or cocoa may be offered in paper cups especially designed for hot beverages. After supper you can go on to tree-trimming and last-minute gift wrapping without worrying about dishes to be done.

CRABMEAT AND CHEESEBURGERS

Ingredients: 1 can (6½ ounces) crabmeat, ¼ cup finely diced green pepper, ¼ cup mayonnaise, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, finely grated onion (pulp and juice), drained sweet pickle relish, salt, pepper, 6 hamburger buns, butter or margarine, ¾ cup grated sharp cheddar cheese.

Method: Drain, remove cartilage from crabmeat and flake. Mix lightly with green pepper. Mix mayonnaise, lemon juice and prepared mustard together; toss lightly with crabmeat mixture, adding grated onion, pickle relish, salt and pepper to taste. Split hamburger buns and toast lightly; butter cut sides. (Keep tops of buttered toasted hamburger buns warm). Spoon crabmeat mixture onto bottom toasted halves of hamburger buns and top with grated cheese. Broil several inches from source of heat 5 minutes or until cheese melts. Serve at once. Makes 6 servings.

LAST-MINUTE FOOD GIFTS

How about teaming cans, jars and packages of food for those last-minute gifts? Here are suggestions.

FOR CHEESE ADDICTS—A couple of varieties of interesting or unusual cheeses and a box of crackers.

FOR SNACKERS—A jar of smoked oysters, one of pickled mushrooms and one of imported cocktail size frankfurters.

FOR SPICE ENTHUSIASTS—A pepper mill and two jars of peppercorns—one white, one black.

Social Whirl

Two Christmas projects have been undertaken and completed by the Industrial Education Wives Club. Members collected from 100 to 150 pounds of used clothing which they took to the Air Force Reserve office in Bryan for shipment to Korea.

In addition, members donated food and bought two hams with money from the treasury for baskets for two needy families.

Christmas party of the Agricultural Education Wives Club will be held at 6:30 p.m. today in Cashion Cabin at Hensel Park. A light supper will be served. Each couple attending is asked to bring a 25-cent gift. Parents of each child who will be present should also bring a gift with the child's name on it. Reservations are to be made with Dawn Gilleland, VI 6-6765.

Browning meat for stew? Peel potatoes and carrots that will accompany the meat while it's in the skillet or kettle. Time-saver!

Dress boiled potatoes with melted butter and minced chives.

Special Mass Planned

Special mass for the repose of the soul of Benny Bernardoni will be said at 5:15 p.m. today at St. Mary's Catholic Chapel. Members of the Newman Club are asked to be present.

Greetings

Christmas brings us thoughts of friends, good times, and all that's brightest and best of life and the highest happiness.

It makes us think of those we serve, or know, or wish to know. It strengthens all the bonds of feeling and friendship, one to another.
