Culpepper, Jurado Lead Aggie Team

By CONNIE ECKARD
 Battalion Boxing Editor
 At 7:30 tonight a referee will call two fighters to the center of the ring in DeWare Field house for their instructions and the Lions Club sponsored boxing tournament will be under way.

Fighters from throughout central and south Texas will be gathered for the A&M Boxing Club's three-day invitational meet. The boxers will be using the meet as a warm-up for several Regional Golden Gloves tournaments around the state.

Under the direction of Major John Birkner the tournament will offer individual and team awards in each of the three classes—open, novice and high school. Trophies will go to the winners of each of the eight weight categories in these classes.

Aggie Coach Andy York expected yesterday to field a host team numbering around 14. These men will all participate in the open and novice divisions and their coach expects them to keep a number of the trophies in College Station.

York commented on his team's chances as he lauded the possibilities of several of his boys including middleweight co-captain Bill Goode who has a long record of matches and titles. Flashy El Paso welterweight Henry Jurado will be out to capture that baubel in the three-day meet.

Bantamweight Juan Ramirez and flyweight Bobby Langford are given an excellent chance to be in the Saturday night finals by York. Jesse Culpepper, who captured the novice heavyweight title in last year's Lions Club tournament will be favored to capture that same title.

Entry chairman Archie Flowers said that teams had entered from several Texas towns including Cut and Shoot, Waco and Houston. Bellaire Boys Club and Variety Boys Club from Houston have both entered squads in all three of the classes.

Local high school fighters from Bryan and College Station will field a strong turn-out to meet the out-of-town visitors.

Tiger Teams Host Bellville

A&M Consolidated's Tigers host the Bellville Brahmas in the opening District 25-AA cage contest tonight in Tiger Gym.

The "B" squads open activities at 7 while the "A" teams get together at 8.

The CHS Kittens journey to Madisonville to open their district with the Colts.

If comparable scores mean anything, the Tigers are in for a very rough night. Monday the Brahmas took the measure of Waller, 69-31, and the following night the Bulldogs dropped Consolidated, 45-42. Bellville stands 9-6 on the season while the Tigers find their record even at 6-6.

The Tiger "B" team, 5-1 on the season, hasn't been tested in their last three contests.

Giants In Final Effort To Sign Jack Robinson

By JOE REICHLER
 NEW YORK, (AP)—In a final desperate effort to persuade Jackie Robinson to change his mind and consent to play just one more season, the New York Giants Wednesday made him one of the most attractive offers ever dangled before a ball player.

The Associated Press learned that Charles Feeney, vice president of the New York Giants, offered Robinson a one-year contract that, together with his purchase price from Brooklyn, would cost the Giants a cool hundred thousand dollars. In addition, Robinson was offered other considerations designed to be of benefit to him after his playing days are over.

Robinson, in a telephone conversation with Feeney yesterday, agreed to dine with Feeney yesterday and listen to his proposition. The sensitive diamond figure, however, said nothing had changed since his last conversation with the Giants and that he was as determined as ever to stick to his retirement decision.
