

A&M Swimmers Capture SWC Relays Second Year

Aggies Win by 10 Over SMU, Texas

Winning three of the six events, A&M's swimmers raced to their second consecutive Southwest Conference relays title in Texas' Gregory Gym Saturday.

The Aggies of Coach Art Adamson swept past SMU, Texas and Rice, scoring 70 points to the Mustang's 60, the Longhorns' 58 and the Owls 40. The 10-point margin was the largest in three years.

The A&M foursome of Robert Baird, Ray Cook, Jimmy Dye and Norman Ufer splashed to a first in the 400-yard backstroke relay with a time of 4:31.4 and the 400-yard medley quartet of Ufer, Henry Goff, Rippy Woodard and Dick Hunkler captured their race. Bruce Gard, Bruce Martin and Walter (Dubby) Godfrey pulled somewhat of an upset by winning the diving relay.

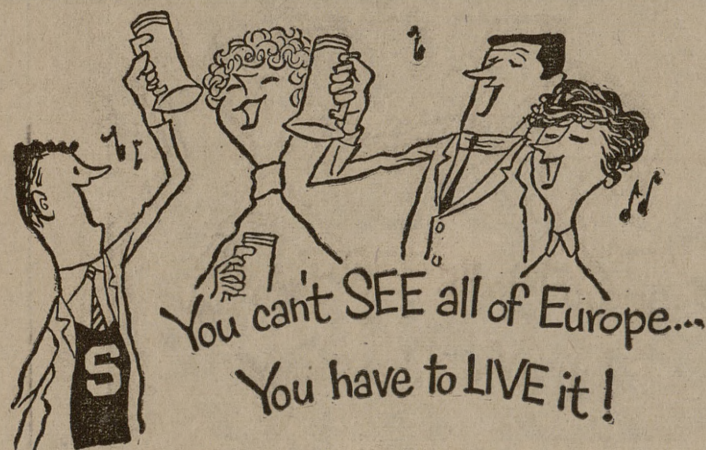

The Aggies took second in both the 400-yard freestyle and 400-yard breaststroke relays and managed a third in the distance medley.

The Longhorns' Jim Barden, Tommy Smith, Jerrell Holder and Joe Lee Neal broke the only record of the day with a 3:36.0 timing in the 400-yard freestyle, breaking their own record of 3:38.2, set in 1956.

The summaries:
 400-yard freestyle relay—1) Texas (Barden, Smith, Holder, Neal); 2) A&M; 3) SMU; 4) Rice. Time: 3:36.0 (new record).

Varsity, Fish Tackle Baylor Tonite at Waco

Lawrence, Corson Lead Frosh Quint

By BARRY HART
 Looking for their first Southwest Conference victory of the 1957 season, A&M's inspiring cagers journey into the land of the Bear to battle Baylor University tonight at 8 p.m.

The Aggie Fish, paced by the terrific shooting and rebounding of Wayne Lawrence and Dave Corson, take on their first league opponent against the Baylor Cubs in the night's opener at 6:30.

Lawrence has scored almost as many points as the next three Fish scorers combined with 81 in three games—a fine 27-point average. The 6-8 Pawcatuck, Conn., import has swept 48 rebounds off the boards to lead A&M in this department. Corson, who has scored 31 points, owns 41 rebounds and is shooting at a .500 percentage with 12 of 24 field goal attempts.

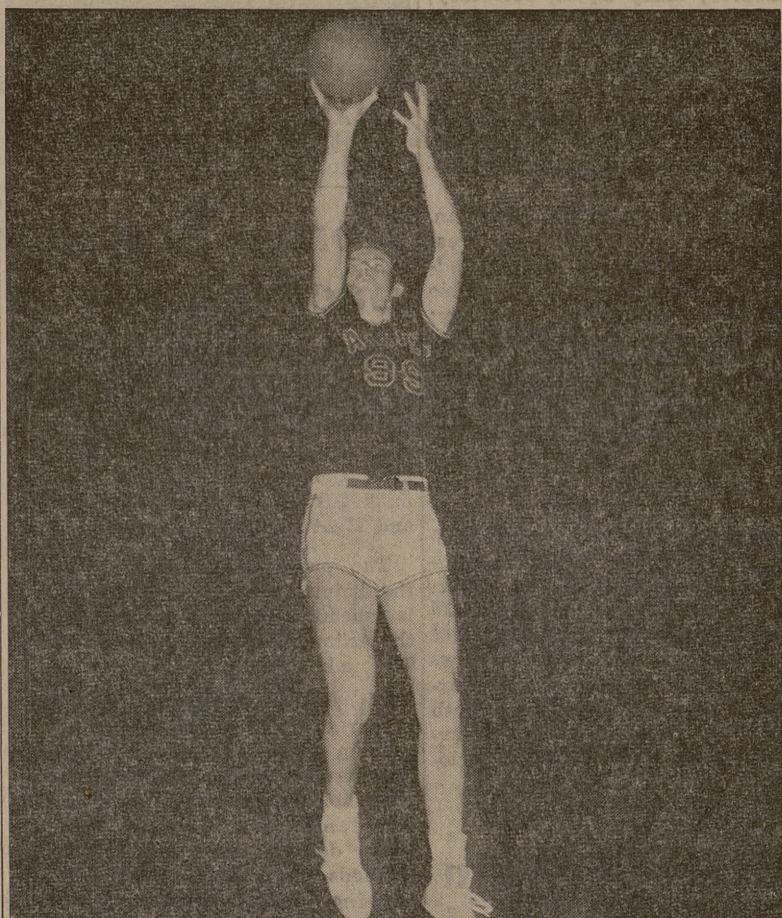

Lawrence has a terrific shooting percentage from the floor of .548 on 34 two-pointers of 62 attempts and his all-around fine play can be distinguished by his minimum of personal fouls—five.

The Fish own a 2-1 record, losing their opener to Allen Academy, then mashing the Houston Kittens and Wharton Junior College.

The Bears of Baylor find themselves in a surprising third place in SWC standings with a 2-1 record while the Aggies have lost three straight to the cream of the league—Rice, Arkansas and SMU. A&M, however, showed the type of basketball they are capable of playing last week against the Mustangs, as they lost to the conference champions, 62-53, after holding Krebs and Co. to a two-point half-time margin.

Captain George Mehaffey and Baylor's Jerry Mallett are tied for fifth in the scoring race with 225 points each. Mehaffey played the finest game of his collegiate career against SMU, scoring 23 points over 6-8 Jim Krebs and out-rebounding the Pony ace, 19-11.

Neil Swisher, A&M's fine little sophomore guard, holds down seventh in the conference scoring column with 206 points, five more than Baylor's Tom Kelly.

FISH WAYNE LAWRENCE — who has led the Aggie first-year men to a 2-1 season record with 81 points and 48 rebounds. The 6-8 Pawcatuck, Conn., product owns a shooting percentage of .548, and a point-per-game average of 27, yet has committed only five personal fouls.

Aggie Boxers Walk Off With Trophies

By CONNIE ECKARD
 Hosting A&M walked off with an arm-load of individual trophies and two team championships Saturday night at the conclusion of the Lions Club invitational boxing tournament.

A&M's Jesse Culpepper was awarded the tournament's best boxer award as he captured the novice heavyweight title by flattening John McDonough of Bryan Field twenty seconds deep in the second round.

The 188-pound Culpepper used a right uppercut in the first round to send McDonough down for a nine count.

A right cross to the chin by Culpepper was the blow that sent his opponent falling forward on his face in the second. Referee Dick Gage stopped the fight awarding the title to Culpepper.

Alton Allen fought his best fight of the tournament bloodying the nose of Aggie welterweight Henry Jurado, but lost a split decision that cost him the title. Allen reached the finals by TKOing Aggie co-captain Don Garner in 1:40 of the third round Friday night.

Bill Goode captured the middleweight title for A&M as he warded off the flailing efforts of Billy Strother of Bellaire who pressed the action throughout.

Don Willis of A&M decisioned teammate Jim Kelly for the novice featherweight title. David Johnson also beat an Aggie teammate for the novice welter crown.
