Mrs. T. Taylor Named To Head Garden Club During 1957-58

Mrs. Tom Taylor was elected president for the 1957-58 club year at the meeting of the A&M Garden Club Friday afternoon.

Serving with her will be Mrs. Edward Baker, first vice president; Mrs. Stanley Davis, second vice president; Mrs. W. C. Freeman, third vice president; Mrs. John Perry, recording secretary; Mrs. R. E. Patterson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. G. McGuire, treasurer; Mrs. John Ashton, reporter, and Mrs. Edward Madeley, historian.

The slate of officers was presented by Mrs. George Potter, chairman of the nominating committee. Before the presentation of committee reports, the president, Mrs. Madeley, announced that the board of directors had appointed Mrs. Carl Williams to serve as second vice president for the remainder of the current year.

The meeting was opened with an invocation by Mrs. Ran Boswell. Mrs. Baker told of tentative plans for a pilgrimage, during the iris season, to Temple and Belton, with lunch at the Stage Coach Inn in Salado.

Mrs. Taylor announced that the club program in February will be open to guests, in order that they may enjoy demonstrations by Mrs. J. L. Webb of Houston. Mrs. Webb, an instructor and accredited judge, will suggest ways to satisfy the requirements for entries in the arrangement classes of the club's flower show.

The day's feature arrangements, done to the theme "Discovering America" by Mrs. Ralph Lee and

To Hear Dr. Anderson

A&M Social Club Slates Meeting For This Friday

A&M Women's Social Club will gather at 3 p. m. Friday in the ballroom of the Memorial Student Center for an address by Dr. John Q. Anderson of the English Department and graduate faculties. This will be the club's first meeting of the new year.

Dr. Anderson, a native of Texas, received his A. B. degree from Oklahoma A&M College and, after serving over five years in the Army, returned to graduate school at Louisiana State University, where he received his master's degree in American literature.

He then taught part-time and did graduate work at the University of Texas before going to the university of North Carolina, where he completed his Ph. D. in American literature.

Before returning to Texas three years ago, he taught for one year in Louisiana. Active in several professional and learned societies, he is immediate past president of the Texas Folklore Society, and is now a councilor, and is chairman of the Folklore-Linguistic Section of the South-Central Modern Language Assn.

In keeping with his varied interests, Dr. Anderson has published several articles in journals devoted to literature, history and folklore.

While searching for material on a medical doctor whose biography he is writing, Dr. Anderson came across an extensive Civil War diary in Tallulah, La., in 1953.

That manuscript, edited with an introduction and explanatory notes, was published by the Louisiana State University Press in March 1955 as "Brokenburn: The Journal of Kate Stone, 1861-1868."

On the day of publication the town of Tallulah celebrated the event with a parade of floats depicting scenes from the book and the period. Over 10,000 were present to witness the ceremonies, during which Miss Amy Holmes, Kate Stone's daughter, was presented with the first copy of the book.

Since its publication, "Brokenburn" has been very favorably reviewed in newspapers and magazines over the nation, including Life and The New Yorker. Now in its second printing, "Brokenburn" has been ranked with such other well-known Confederate women's diaries as Mary Boykin Chestnut's "Diary from Dixie."

Dr. Anderson's most recent work in Civil War history is an edition of the letters of a medical doctor who served through the Civil War with a Texas unit. The work is soon to be published as "A Texas Surgeon in the C.S.A." This will be the topic of Dr. Anderson's talk before the Social Club.

The treasurer, Mrs. H. E. Hierth, will accept club dues at Friday's meeting.

SOCIAL WHIRL

Agricultural Engineering Wives Club will entertain the department faculty wives at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the home of Mrs. Fred Jones, 201 College View. Mrs. Harry Rankin will give a book review on "Bears in the Kitchen." All members are urged to be present and get acquainted with the faculty wives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Crawford entertained the Mechanical Engineering Wives Club in their home Monday evening with a graduation party honoring Mrs. Audrey Lindner. Mrs. Lindner, the only January graduate, was presented the P.H.T. diploma by Mr. Crawford.

Members of the Agriculture Education Wives Club have elected the following officers for the spring semester: president, Doris Purser; vice president, Loretta Hedrick; secretary-treasurer, Joyce Cozart; reporter, Doris Coleman; parliamentarian, Beverly Breeland, and representative to the Aggie Wives Council, Myrna Hendricks.

Receiving their P.H.T. degrees from Prof. O. M. Holt were the following graduating members: Frances McCulley, Dawn Gilleland, Louise McCoy, Wilma Hackfield, Judy Moody and Paula King. Dr. Jarrold Gray was present to take pictures.

A P.H.T. dinner honoring January graduates will be held at 6:30 this evening in the social room of the Memorial Student Center by the Agriculture Economics and Rural Sociology Wives Club. Wehrman's is catering the affair.

Refreshments of tea sandwiches, fritos and dip, cake and coffee were served, with Mrs. R. M. Wingren presiding at the coffee service.

Jo Ann Garretson and Ann Kinney will be hostesses to the regular group of the Aggie Wives Bridge Club Thursday evening. Hostesses for the intermediate group will be Sue Bresie and Jean Price, and for the beginners, Jeanene Stein and Helen Smith.

Prizes were won last week by Joyce Hanna, Virginia Fereday and Betty Ann Davis in the regular group and by Amaryllis Roberts, Tam Walton and Kathy Biggler, among the intermediates.

Hostesses were Pat Sprayberry and Mary Virginia Lyles, Jeanette Clemens and Shirley Kamm, and Marilyn Janish and Sandie Hobbie.
