

Spring Practice Opens Feb. 25 for Champs

The Southwest Conference champion Aggies open Spring football practice Feb. 25 with Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant's number one problem the replacement of his middle line.

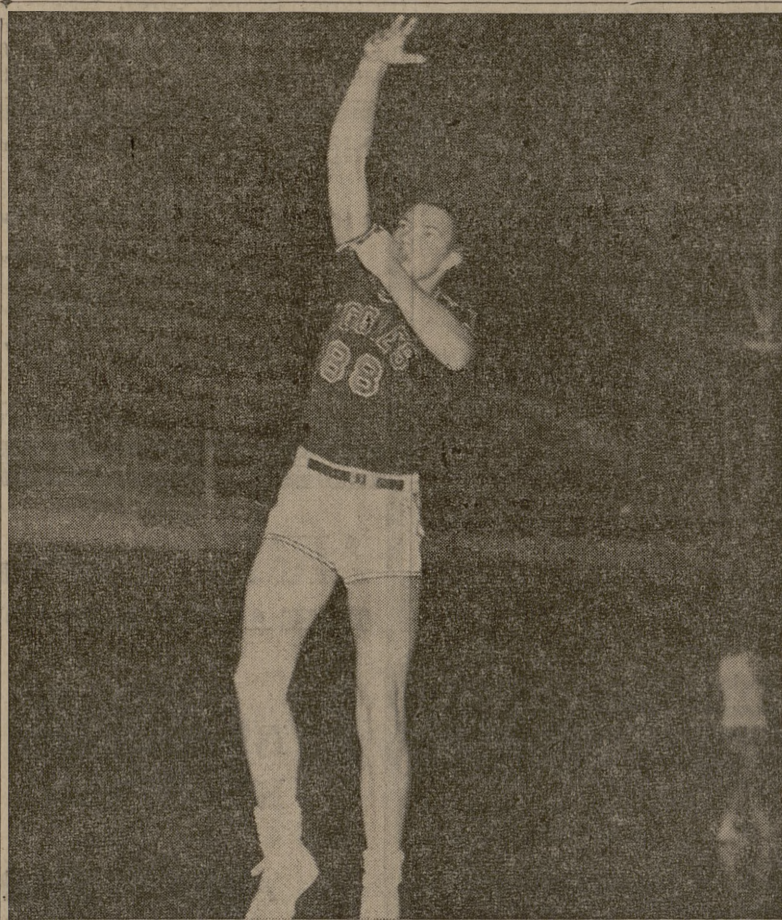

Gone are center Lloyd Hale and guards Dee Powell and Dennis Goehring from a middle that was virtually impenetrable for A&M grid foes. Also missing from the Aggie drills will be graduates Bobby Lockett, and Bob Clendennon, tackles; ends Gene Stallings and Bobby Drake Keith; halfback Don Watson and fullbacks Jack Pardee and George Gillar.

Hale, Goehring and Pardee were unanimous all-conference choices while Pardee and Goehring were named to All-American teams.

Back to defend their crown in 1957 will be 19 lettermen, including three-fourths of the backfield and all-American tackle Charlie Krueger.

Returning to Bryant's backfield are quarterbacks Roddy Osborne, all-SWC, Bobby Jo Conrad and Jimmy Wright; halfbacks John Crow, unanimous all-conference Loyd Taylor and Carlos Esquivel; and fullback Richard Gay.

Returnees in the line include center John Gilbert; guards Murry Trimble, Jim Langston, Harold Price and Tommy Howard; tackles Jim Stanley, A. L. Simmons and Kenneth Beck; and ends John Tracey, Bobby Marks and Don Smith.

DAVE CORSON—6-6 forward from New Orleans and the other half of A&M's two-man Fish basketball team. Corson has scored 43 points and collected 55 rebounds, second in both departments to Wayne Lawrence.

Bryan All Stars Defeat College

By FRED McDONALD
 The Bryan All Stars defeated the College Station All Stars in a bowling match at the Memorial Student Center Alleys last night by 179 pins. The Bryan team out-rolled the College Station team 758-579.

This match was arranged by the Brazos County March of Dimes Committee. John Geiger, local alley manager, handled the arrangements. Mike Mistovich handled the narration of the event and did a terrific job.

Don Watson, John Crow, Harry Dishman, E. E. Holt, Jack Springer and Col. Gunn bowled for the Bryan All-Stars. Ran Boswell, Col. Joe Davis, John Redden, Spencer Buchanan, Jerry Claiborne and Jack Lunsford were the members of the College Station All-Stars.

The bowlers had to knock down a "Polio Pin," which was red in color, or pay a fine of 10 cents for each miss. They were very happy to have Mistovich make the announcement that the First National Bank of Bryan and the College Station State Bank of College Station would pick up the tab for their misses as part of their contribution to the March of Dimes drive.

In the regularly scheduled All-Star League, Conways, Bryan Air Force Jets and Park Cleaners continued their fight for first place, with all teams winning four points each. The Park Cleaners were particularly hot with John Geiger rolling high game of 233 and high series of 609. The Bryan Air Force Jets knocked down a total of 2641 to take high team series.
