

A&M Cagers Take Off For Finals Until Feb. 2

The Aggie cagers, both varsity and freshmen, take a two-week rest to concentrate on final exams after losing a doubleheader to Baylor Tuesday night.

A&M now owns a 4-12 season record and are 0-4 in conference play. The Fish stand 2-2 on the season, losing their only SWC start.

George Mehaffey and Neil Swisher continue to pace the A&M scoring with 247 and 215 points, respectively. Mehaffey has 172 rebounds to his credit while Swisher has picked off 107.

For the first-year Aggies, Wayne Lawrence and Dave Corson completely dominate the statistics. Lawrence has meshed 108 points in four games, a 27-point average, while Corson stands second with 43. The 6-9 Lawrence, up from 175 to 200 pounds, has swept the boards to the tune of 71 rebounds, with Corson garnering 55.

Ted Harrod and Fritzie Connolly, who were both on the bench at the start of the season, have won starting berths on the merits of their aggressive play. Harrod scored 14 points against the Bears, while Connolly picked up eight and an equal number of rebounds. SMU practically cinched their third consecutive conference cage title with a tight, 59-57, victory over Rice Tuesday night in Dallas. The Mustangs are 14-1 on the season and 4-0 in league play.

Both A&M teams are idle until Feb. 2, when they journey to Ft. Worth for a doubleheader with the TCU Horned Toads.

2 Judging Events Here This Spring

Texas A&M will be host for two FFA judging contests this Spring. "The Area III judging contest will be held on the campus April 13 followed by the State Contest on May 4," said E. L. Tiner, area supervisor. The state contest will be attended by the winners of the area contests. Members of the college staff and agriculture students will aid in conducting the contests.

For Failure to Sign

Saddler Stripped Of Boxing Crown

MILWAUKEE, (AP)—The National Boxing Assn. Wednesday for the second time in 25 months stripped featherweight champion Sandy Saddler of his crown for failing to sign for a title defense—but added it would "reconsider" after he undergoes a physical examination.

Fred Saddy, chairman of the NBA's rating committee who announced the action against Saddler, said the NBA would "bide its time until it learns the outcome of the examination."

Shortly after the NBA declared Saddler's title vacant, the New York State Athletic Commission said it had ordered Saddler's manager, Charley Johnston, to bring Sandy in for a physical examination to determine whether he is fit to fight. The commission asked Johnston and Saddler to appear Friday or the week after.

Johnston indicated he could not appear until a week from Friday because his wife is ill.

"Saddler will be given every bit of consideration," Saddy said. "If he is unable to fight that's a different story."

Saddy laughed off Johnston's blast that he would "sue the NBA for a million dollars... for taking away the livelihood of a boy because he was hurt in an accident and hasn't recovered enough to fight again."

"Who's got that kind of money?" asked Saddy.

Saddler, now 33 by his own admission although the record book lists him as 30, was injured in an auto accident last July and hasn't fought since. He last defended his 126-pound title Jan 18, 1956, when he stopped Flash Elorde of the Philippines in the 13th round.

NEIL SWISHER—A&M's terrific sophomore guard from Victoria who has scored 215 points so far to take second among the Aggie scorers.

Aggie Wrestlers in Houston YMCA Tourney Saturday

A&M's wrestlers move to Houston Saturday for the Houston YMCA Open Tournament.

The Aggies, who dominated the only major meet they entered this season, will be favorites to capture the team title with their biggest threat coming from the Corpus Christi Naval Station team.

Earlier in the year A&M easily won the Dallas YMCA tourney, with the "A" team scoring 45 for first and the "B" squad 16 for runnerup.

Teams from the University of Houston, Dallas YMCA, Houston YMCA and the San Antonio YMCA will battle the Aggies for the championship.

Wrestling for A&M will be Al Calchar, 115, Jerry Burnanan and Bill Christy, 130, Gordon Guenter, 137, Don Burchard, 147, Bob McDowell and Wayne Murley, 157, Hiram French 177, John Watson 191, and Jerry Allen and Charlie Kappleman, heavyweight.

Al Weill Still Going Strong

NEW YORK, (AP)—Many persons thought Al Weill would call it quits when heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano hung up his gloves nearly nine months ago.

But at 63, the portly veteran still is going strong and probably is the most enthusiastic fight manager of them all. He has seven fighters in his growing stable
