Poetry Society Enjoys 'Tour'

A picture-tour of Ireland, Scotland and England was enjoyed by members of the Bryan-College Station Poetry Society Monday evening, when Miss Malcolm McInnis showed color slides taken last summer in those countries. It was announced during the business meeting that Jessie Merle Franklin has sold her 10th poem to the Saturday Evening Post. A sonnet by Charles Lee Hurley was published in the Dallas Morning News, and Merle Hudson had an article in last Sunday's Houston Chronicle.

Top Poems Listed

Mrs. John Q. Anderson reported that Dr. Louis Dallarhide, president of the Mississippi Poetry Society who was asked to judge the best poems from the first, second and third place winners of the past four months, had chosen:

In the serious verse category—first, "Youth" by Charles Lee Hurley; second, "Lament" by Charles Drumwright, and third, "Night Wind" by Drumwright. In the light category—first, "The Witch and the Pumpkin," Elizabeth Wood; second, "The
