CAMPUS CLEANERS

World Prayer Day Set

College Station will be among more than 20,000 communities in 142 nations of the world to observe World Day of Prayer Friday, an observance begun 70 years ago by a small group of American women.

At services circling the earth for more than 24 hours, people of all ages and races will pray, in more than a thousand languages and dialects, for understanding among all nations.

The local observance, to be sponsored by the College Station Council of Church Women, is set for 9:50 a.m. Friday at St. Thomas Episcopal Church.

All women in Bryan and College Station are invited to attend the service, the theme for which is taken from Romans 8:35, "Who Shall Separate Us."

Hungarian Writes Service

In keeping with its custom of inviting one or more women from a given country to write the service, the National World Day of Prayer Committee of United Church Women this year selected Mrs. Serena Vassody, formerly of Hungary. Mrs. Vassody has based the service upon her experiences behind the Iron Curtain.

Women participating in the local program will include the Mesdames William Parker, Norman Anderson, Melvin Schroeder, Henry Hadley and Benjamin Evans.

Special music for the ceremony will be furnished by the Harmony Singers, directed by Mrs. Grace Krug. The church nursery will be open.

Program Planners

The service is being arranged by the local World Day of Prayer committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Benjamin H. Evans, assisted by the president of the College Station Council of Church Women, Mrs. I. M. Atkins, and other council officers.

The offering received at the service will be divided between projects of the Division of Foreign Missions and the Division of Home Missions of the National Council of Churches.

Mayor Ernest Langford has issued a proclamation calling for observance of the special day.

A&M President D. W. Williams is also cooperating by requesting students, faculty and administrators of the college to pause at 10 a.m. Friday for a moment of silent prayer.

Whistle To Mark Period

The minute of silent prayer will begin when the whistle stops and will end when the whistle blows again at 10:01.

The memorandum issued by President Williams states that members of classes meeting at that time be asked to stand with heads bowed during the quiet period.

Through the cooperation of Superintendent L. S. Richardson,

A&M Consolidated Schools will also join in the city-wide observance.

ENGINEERS

FIND OUT WHY IN ENGINEERING THE BEST OPPORTUNITIES ARE IN AVIATION. IN AVIATION THE BEST OPPORTUNITIES ARE AT TEMCO.

In a few days an engineering representative will be on campus to tell the Temco story of outstanding opportunity for young engineers.

It's an exciting story of a vigorous, growing aircraft company that offers qualified graduates an immediate chance to grow with it. Temco is old enough to offer you stability and prestige, young enough so that you can match its dynamic growth stride for stride.

Located in three Texas communities, Temco's opportunities for finest working and living conditions should be outlined to every engineering student. This is your cordial invitation to learn Temco's story personally.
