Ags Edge Rice, LSU In Final Event Victory

Keeping the outcome in doubt until the final event for the second week in a row, A&M's cinder men took eight of 11 points in the discus to beat LSU and Rice in a triangular meet Saturday in Houston.

The Aggies garnered 62 points while the Tigers picked up 56 1/2 and Rice managed 51 1/2.

Ag Nine Hands SWC Contest to UT, 8-4

By BARRY HART

Toby Newton allowed only three hits, but two of them were home runs as the Aggies handed the University of Texas an 8-4 Southwest Conference victory Friday on Kyle Field.

The two state schools were rained out Saturday by an hour-long shower that ended at 8 a. m., and, although the sun shone the rest of the morning, A&M's "efficient" ground crew couldn't get the diamond ready.

Seven of the Longhorns runs were unearned, as were two of A&M's all scored in the bottom of the eighth on four hits and a pair of Teasip errors.

Newton should have gotten out of the opening frame without a hit, but a mis-played fly ball by center-fielder Dickie Thomas gave Texas a break after two were out and Bill Moore hammered the Galveston southpaw's delivery over the left-field fence for three runs. The first tally scored on the error.

A hit coupled with another error and a four-bagger by pitcher George Myers produced the other three unearned runs by the Steers in the top of the second, the last frame for Newton.

Milstead-Led Reds Take Whites by 13

Charley Milstead, sophomore-to-be from Tyler, brilliantly passed and ran the Reds to a 40-27 victory over the Whites in A&M's closing scrimmage of spring practice on Kyle Field last night.

Quarterbacking the Reds for a half, Milstead sustained injured ribs early in the third quarter but still completed six of nine passes for 115 yards and gained 59 yards on six carries.

The Reds, consisting of mostly the first team, were missing four starters, All-American candidates John Crow and Charley Krueger and Loyd Taylor and Roddy Osborne. All are injured.

Jimmy Wright quarterbacked the Whites and in a surprising development was the night's leading rusher, gaining 81 yards on 23 carries. He completed two of six passes for 19 yards.

The Whites received the opening kickoff, and on second down Milstead intercepted Wright's pass and returned 34 yards to the White 26. Milstead kept for 22 yards and the TD with two minutes gone.

The Reds led 7-0 after Milstead's conversion and on the ensuing kickoff Dick Lewis covered in the end zone and Milstead's wide try for point left the score at 13-0.

Gay scored the third TD for the Reds on a two yard burst through left guard with Bobby Marks converting to make the score 20-0.

The Whites finally scored on a 74 yard drive, Wright running 13 yards to score and then convert. Wright scored from the one yard line and converted to bring the Whites up to 26-14.

Tell Me About Yourself George . . . Your Plans, Your Hopes, Your Investment Program

Most girls are incurable romanticists. Give them a balmy night rich with the perfume of heliotrope, a keen-eyed, sensitive young man (such as George), a velvety black sky flecked with stars and they are perfectly happy . . . for the time-being.

Unfortunately, it takes something more to keep them happy for any greater length of time. This "something more" is an intangible known as security.

Oh, you can ply them with golden words, with fiery kisses about the head and shoulders . . . but if you fail to offer them security, you're dead, man.

Security comes in various forms, but one of the best is a NATIONAL COLLEGE LIFE savings and investment program. This plan is available only to college men and payments can be deferred until after you graduate and begin earning an income.

Get the details on THE PROTECTED INVESTOR from your NATIONAL COLLEGE LIFE representative today.
