

Bunyon Resigns to Join GM; Harpooner Moved Up

NCAA, Ill Health Brings Resignation

Head Athletic Proselyter Paul (Cub) Bunyon has resigned to become public relations director for the Cadillac Division of General Motors, announced Athletes Congress Chairman Crisp (The Shadow) Groaningman today.

Moving up into the Big Leader spot is Chuck Euripides (Where There's Smoke, There's Fire) Harpooner, long-time associate of Bunyon and capable sidekick to Knife (Shake, Rattle and Roll) Oiving. Harpooner will take command tomorrow at 5:30 a.m. with a called inspection of facilities followed by a three-hour coffee break while he and his staff view movies of John Kimbrough in action.

Bunyon, the giant Arkansawian who moved from 'Old Kaintuck to lead the Athletic and Military College of Tejas out of the football tundras, resigned on the recommendation of his entourage of physicians because of poor health and an excess of taxes.

"Mr. Bunyon has been under severe mental strain since May, 1955," said Dr. Neuro Sees, spokesman for the group of 11 doctors. "And lately he has been suffering with continued attacks of hang nail and whooping crane."

Bunyon's continual decrease in mental and physical condition came during May, 1955, when the Nominal Committee of Alcoholics Anonymous, headed by Jesty Kneeling, head coach of Houston's South Main Academy of Nonsense, slashed the throat of Cub's Tejas A-Ayes with a two-year probation prohibiting them from participating in pre, during or post-season contests in any sport with any school, institution or professional team in the western hemisphere, to the unrestrained joy of the other seven Southern Westmost Conting-

Football to be De-Emphasized

"We're going to de-emphasize this horrid football," said new Athletic Proselyter Chuck Euripides (Where There's Smoke, There's Fire) Harpooner. "And start emphasizing something worthwhile—like handball, polo, Jai Lai and bridge," immediately after taking over the reins from Paul (Cub) Bunyon today.

"My first move as Big Leader will be to put a roof over Kyle Field and turn it into 200 regulation hand ball courts," grinned the handsome new director. "We've going to give athletics back to the students."

Growing acclaim swept across the campus of the unprecedented move by the Athletes Congress in their appointment with A-Gye grid-ders displaying a fine attitude toward the whole thing.

"Personally, I think it's a great idea," said Johan Dandy (Killer) Blackbird, A&M's great all-nation-wide runner. "I've never really been interested in football or any contact sport. Jai Lai is my game and I'll be glad to start working at it again."

Champion Klugler, all-everything tackle from Deepwell, was overjoyed at the prospects of quitting football.

"It's the greatest thing that's ever happened here," beamed Klugler. "Now I can go out for track. I've always fancied myself as quite a pole vaulter, you know, and once did 7-10 in high school."

NEW HEAD ATHLETIC PROSELYTER—Chuck Euripides (Where There's Smoke, There's Fire) Harpooner takes charge tomorrow after being promoted upon the resignation of Paul (Cub) Bunyon.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER OFFERS SOME VALUABLE ADVICE ABOUT SAVINGS BONDS

Mickey Mantle's big hat won him the American League's Triple Batting Crown last year and unanimous choice by the nation's sports writers as his league's most valuable player.

This young Oklahoman figures to have many more great years in the majors, but already he's looking beyond his playing days, planning for his family's future with regular savings.

Mickey says, "From personal experience, I know that the guy who comes through regularly means the most to himself and his team. I've learned the same lesson about savings. Buying U. S. Bonds regularly helps win the game of security."

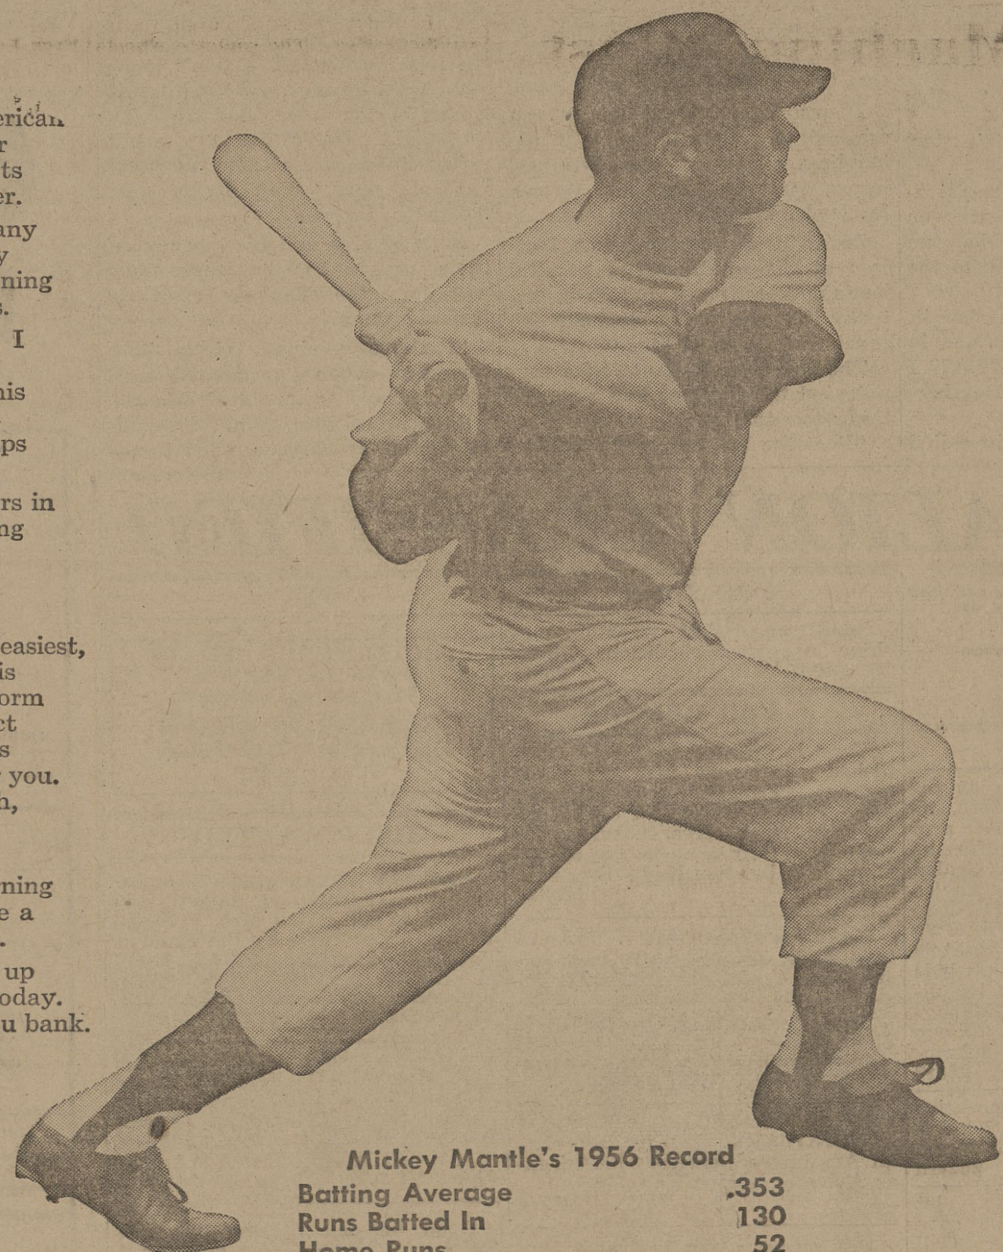

"Millions of sports fans can be star players in the game of security by joining and staying on Payroll Savings where they work."

Good advice for the long haul from a long ball hitter.

For most of us, Payroll Savings offer the easiest, surest way to save. And the time to start is now. All you do is sign the application form in the payroll office where you work. Select the amount to be set aside for your Bonds each payday. Then your saving is done for you. And each time you've accumulated enough, a Bond is purchased in your name.

You keep adding to your Bonds through Payroll Savings and your Bonds keep earning interest for you. It's a sure way to make a little deduction add up to a lot of security.

So don't put off saving another day. Sign up for Payroll Savings where you work—today. Or start buying Bonds regularly where you bank.

Mickey Mantle's 1956 Record
Batting Average .353
Runs Batted In 130
Home Runs 52

Part of every American's Savings belongs in U. S. Savings Bonds

The U. S. Government does not pay for this advertisement. The Treasury Department thanks, for their patriotic donation, the Advertising Council and

The Battalion

CRISP (THE SHADOW) GROANINGMAN—Chairman of A&M Athletes Congress at work tending his flock.

VOTE TOMORROW!

and when you do . . .

BE SURE TO VOTE

FOR

SEARCY BRACEWELL

1938 A&M Graduate

YOUR CANDIDATE

FOR

U. S. SENATOR

(Paid Political Adv.)