By MRS. B. R. WRIGHT

(Mrs. Wright and her husband, Bill—a military science instructor at A&M, have two sons—Charles, 7, and Roy, 2. Both Capt. and Mrs. Wright are Texans. He is an Aggie, class of '47.)

STUFFED ANGEL FOOD CAKE

1 pint cream, whipped
1 package marshmallows, cut fine
½ cup chopped pineapple
½ cup crushed peppermint candy
½ cup chopped nuts
1 small bottle maraschino cherries

Cut top from angel food cake and take out center to form shell. Fill with the above mixture. Replace top and ice top and sides with remaining mixture. Let stand 4 hours before serving.

CHOCOLATE CAKE

2 cups sugar
1 cup shortening
2 eggs
1 cup sour milk
2 teaspoons soda
2 cups flour
½ teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons cocoa
1 cup boiling water
1 teaspoon vanilla
Mix shortening, sugar and eggs until smooth. Add soda to milk and add alternately with flour, salt and cocoa. Add vanilla and boiling water just before pouring batter into pans. Bake at 350 degrees in two 9-inch layer pans.

NO-COOK FROSTING

¾ teaspoon salt
2 egg whites
¼ cup sugar
¾ cup Karo syrup (light)
1¼ teaspoons vanilla
Add salt to egg whites and beat until mixture forms soft peaks. Gradually add sugar, beating until smooth and glossy. Slowly add syrup, beating thoroughly after each addition, until firmly peaked. This makes enough to frost two 9-inch layers.

DEEP FRIED SCALLOPS

1 pound scallops
2 tablespoons oil
2 tablespoons vinegar
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup flour
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 egg, beaten
1 tablespoon water
fine cracker crumbs
Wash scallops; dry and cut to uniform size. Marinate 1 hour in the oil, vinegar and salt—stirring occasionally so that all of the scallops are seasoned. Drain and roll in the flour to which salt and pepper have been added. Lift from flour, shaking slightly, and dip in the beaten egg and water, mixed. Roll in fine crumbs. Fry in deep fat until golden brown, about 2 minutes. Serve very hot. Serves 4.

PEANUT BRITTLE

2 cups sugar
1 cup Karo
2 cups raw peanuts
1 teaspoon soda
Cook sugar, Karo and peanuts until nuts are done—about 265 degrees. Add soda. Pour on greased paper or cookie sheet.

County Counseling Program Outlined To Campus Study Club

Campus Study Club members were given an interesting insight into youth counseling work in Brazos County when Victor M. Ehlers Jr. addressed them Tuesday afternoon at the YMCA.

He explained the history of the local program, which was initiated through the cooperation of the Division of Mental Health and the Youth Development Committee.

According to Ehlers, the main emphasis of the service originally was upon problems of juvenile delinquency. However, the counseling of all emotionally disturbed children has assumed increasing importance.

Ehlers emphasized the fact that although Brazos County has fewer delinquency problems than some other areas of the state, its growth will increase the need for such a counseling program.

Following Ehlers' talk Mrs. C. W. Crawford spoke briefly on driver education, emphasizing that this training is needed not only for teenage drivers but for many long-time license-holders. She illustrated her talk with accident photographs taken by Grady Hanover, deputy sheriff.

Following the program, members were invited to remain for a social hour.
