

Fish Meet Plowboys In '57 Opener Friday

By JIMMY CARRELL

Coach Les Palmer will call upon fireballing Percy Sanderson, former schoolboy star from Nederland, to open the 1957 baseball season for his A&M freshmen, when they meet the John Tarleton Plowboys at 3 p.m. Friday on Kyle Field.

Dallas University will be hosted in a 2 p.m. game Saturday on Kyle Field. Either Hollis Hood of Lake Jackson or southpaw Don Pettavino of Jesuit High of New Orleans will start the Saturday tilt with both due to pitch.

Sanderson posted a 23-5 record while in high school last spring, pitching 28 of Nederland's 32 games and catching the other four. He has been plagued by a sore arm but Coach Palmer reports that he was throwing hard Wednesday and will be ready to hurl.

At present there are 25 candidates for the freshman team with Gerald Walling, catcher from Spring Branch; Dink Patterson, second baseman from North Dallas; Don Plumlee, shortstop from Dallas Sunset; Jess Foster, centerfielder from San Antonio, Brackenridge and J. B. Carroll, rightfielder from College Station, nailing down starting berths. Walling is considered an outstanding prospect at catcher and was a fine hitter in high school.

A battle is on for starting berths at the other positions.

Bill Houchin, lefthander from Byrd High of Shreveport, and Sam De Gelia of Hearne are strongest contenders for the first base job.

Third base is a fight at present between Joseph Wood of Dallas Adamson and James Turpin of Port Arthur with three candidates outstanding in the tussle for the left field slot in Ronald Green of Austin McCallum, Charles Graf of Vernon and Bill Clifford of Dunkirk, N. Y.

The remainder of the squad consists of Richard Anderson, third baseman, Houston Jeff Davis; Dennis Chandler, second baseman, Dallas Woodrow Wilson; Don Chase, catcher, Houston San Jacinto; Jimmy Cox, second baseman, Houston Milby; Frank Dahlberg, outfielder, Bryan; Dick Lewis, shortstop, Houston Jeff Davis; Charlie Milstead, pitcher, Tyler; Alex Sanchez, shortstop, Lockhart; Bobby Sims, pitcher, Moody; and Jerry Williams, catcher, San Antonio Edison.

SECOND-SACKER—Doug (Moon) Mullins who switched from the pitchers' mound to the infield in this, his senior season. Mullins has collected five hits in 23 times to the plate for a .217 average and has handled 18 chances with one error—a .957 percentage.

Tigers Open 23-AA Play With Cypress-Fairbanks

With a four-game winning streak at stake, Coach Edsel Jones' A&M Consolidated Tigers open their 1957 District 23-AA schedule with Cypress-

Fairbanks at 3:30 p.m. Friday on Tiger Field.

Either Alton Arnold or Edgar Feldman is slated to start on the mound for Consolidated.

The Tigers boast four wins to go with three losses at the hands of AAA ball clubs, scoring 47 runs on 37 hits in the four game streak.

Arnold, whose won-lost record of 2-2 is not outstanding, has pitched 25 innings and recorded the phenomenal total of 54 strikeouts over that stretch. Unearned runs have led to his downfall.

Feldman has met the same fate, posting a 2-1 record, though not allowing an earned run in his 18 innings pitched.

The Tiger shortstop, John Martinez, leads the club in hitting with a .368 batting average.

Big League Roundup

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Brooklyn Dodgers, armed with big Don Newcombe, came off with nothing better than a 10-inning no-decision with the Milwaukee

Braves yesterday as the two National League contenders battled to a 2-2 tie in the opening game of their northward road show.

Bobby Thomson and Johnny Logan smacked home runs off Newk, who had walloped one of his own off Ray Crone—a 25-year-old right-hander who dealt the defending champs only four hits in his nine innings. A single by Duke Snider, a walk and Gino Cimoli's single scored the other Dodger run.

Newcombe worked the first six innings with Clem Labine wrapping it up. Corky Valentine pitched the 10th for the Braves who called it quits with the Dodgers at Jacksonville to get started on their trip to San Antonio for the second meeting in the eight-game series.

Elsewhere, three fourth-inning home runs gave the Washington Senators a 4-3 victory over the Cincinnati Redlegs; southpaw Harvey Haddix lined a three-run double as the Philadelphia Phillies knocked off the Boston Red Sox 3-1; rookie Jim Landis delivered a two-run homer that helped the Chicago White Sox beat the New York Yankees 8-4; the Pittsburgh Pirates, despite just four hits, defeated Kansas City A's 2-0; Detroit's Tigers scored three in the 10th to bump the St. Louis Cardinals 8-5; Cleveland packed nine runs into the seventh inning to bang the New York Giants 13-6, and the Chicago Cubs bopped the Baltimore Orioles 6-2.

The Senators, held hitless for 3 2-3 innings by Warren Hacker, finally got the job done on home runs by Roy Sievers, Bob Lemon and Clint Courtney, with Whitey Herzog singling ahead of Courtney's blast. The Redlegs got all their runs in the first, with Wally Post hitting a two-run homer, off Evelio Hernandez.

Two singles and a walk set the Haddix' big blow against Boston's Frank Sullivan in the second inning. The little lefty then gave up three walks and Frank Malzone's RBI single in the third before settling down again as the Phils made it 11-1 vs. American League teams this spring.

Landis' home run capped a four-run third for the White Sox, who had snapped a string of 21 scoreless innings by Yankee righthander Tom Sturdivant in the first frame.

Look for Pair of Wins

A&M Nine Tries TCU Tomorrow

By BARRY HART

Coach Beau Bell's Aggie nine meet defending Southwest Conference champion TCU tomorrow and Saturday in Ft. Worth looking for a needed pair of league victories.

After blowing a game each to the University of Texas and Baylor, A&M hopes to get off their Good Samaritan binge and play the type of ball they're capable of. The Longhorns capitalized on Cadet errors to score seven unearned runs and take an 8-4 decision on Kyle Field two weekends ago while The Aggies gave one of two contests to the Baptists only one strike away from victory.

The Horned Frogs and Texas are currently leading the SWC with identical, 3-0, records. TCU returns six regulars, including hard-hitting centerfielder, Carl Warwick, expected to win all-league honors. Coach Dutch Meyer calls Warwick "... a big league prospect." The Froggies turned in a 13-2 record in 1956 and their first crown since 1933.

Coach Bell's Aggies stand 1-2 in league action and 2-5 for the season. Weak at the plate a year ago, A&M finds their base hits coming at the right time, but costly errors are more than offsetting the run-batted-in. The Maroon are batting .231 as a team as compared with .212 a year ago.

A pair of sophomores, catcher Gary Herrington and thirdbaseman Wendell Reed, pace the Aggie batters with .320 percentages. Both have slapped out eight hits in 25 trips to the plate. Reed has driven in three runs to take second to Jim Smotherman's seven in that department. Smotherman has nine hits in 32 times at bat for a .281 average.

Sophomore hurler Donnie Hullum owns the best Maroon ERA—posting a fine 1.68 mark. Hullum, although he has won none and lost one, has pitched 21 1/3 innings and given up only four earned runs. The relief ace has struck out 14.

Galveston's fine little leftie, Toby Newton, shows a 1-1 record with 26 strikeouts in 22 innings. Newton has a 3.26 ERA and probably will get the nod tomorrow in Ft. Worth.
