Nichols Beaten as Aggie, Eagle Golfers in 3 1/2-3 1/2 Tie

Although Aggie ace Bobby Nichols was defeated and invading North Texas State College had the day's medalist, A&M tied the Eagles, 3 1/2-3 1/2, on the Cadet course Thursday.

The Aggies journey to Houston today to try the Rice Owls. Dick Whetzle of North Texas took home medalist honors with a two-over par 72

Results:
Sexton, NTS, defeated Nichols, A&M, 2-up.
Whetzle, NTS, defeated Binky Mitchella, 3 and 2.

Sexton-Whetzle defeated Nichols-Mitchella, 3 and 2.
Tom Reed, NTS and Marcelino Moreno, A&M, halved.
Jerry Durbin, A&M, defeated Bob Stroope, NTS, 1-up.
Fletcher, A&M, defeated Juan Estrada, NTS, 2 and 1.
Durbin-Moreno defeated Reed-Stroope, 1-up.

Gridders Open, Close '57 Schedule on TV

The 1957 edition of the A&M football team opens and closes its season on television.

A 10-game slate with starting times has been announced by Athletic Director Paul Bryant. His fourth Aggie grid team starts the year in Dallas against once-mighty Maryland Sept. 21 at 3 p.m. and finishes with the University of Texas on Kyle Field Nov. 28 at 1:30 p.m.

Maryland replaced Villanova on the '57 schedule with another newcomer, Missouri, taking the place of LSU.

The Baylor-A&M game has already drawn so much comment that a sellout is expected for Kyle Field and the Rice-Texas game has been switched to that night in order for more people to catch the Aggie game.

Bryant's Cadets must journey into the hills of Arkansas, an area where they have had little good fortune in the past and try Rice in the stadium where Loyd Taylor and Jimmy Wright pulled the biggest rally in conference history two years ago.

The Schedule:
Sept. 21—Maryland at Dallas, 3 p.m.
Sept. 28—Texas Tech at Lubbock, 8 p.m.
Oct. 5—Missouri at Columbia, 2 p.m.
Oct. 12—Houston at College Station, 8 p.m.
Oct. 19—TCU at Ft. Worth, 2 p.m.
Oct. 26—Baylor at College Station, 2 p.m.
Nov. 2—Arkansas at Fayetteville, 2 p.m.
Nov. 9—SMU at College Station, 2 p.m.
Nov. 16—Rice at Houston, 2 p.m.
Nov. 28—Texas at College Station, 1:30 p.m.

George Mehaffey Selected To Play Against Trotters

Another basketball honor has been bestowed upon George Mehaffey, A&M's basketball captain of the past season, in his selection as a member of the College All-Star team, currently touring the country as opponents of the Harlem Globetrotters.

Mehaffey will join the All-Stars in Louisville, Ky., on April 8 and play through seven games with them, including engagements in Kansas City, Mo., Seattle, Logan, Ore., San Francisco, Los Angeles and finishing April 15 in Denver.

The tour is the second such honor to be bestowed upon the Ken Loeffler product at A&M, having played in the Shriner's East-West charity game in Kansas City. The tour is on an expenses-paid basis.

5-Game Eastern Tour

Ag Cagers Name '57-58 Schedule

By JIM (AP) CARRELL

Coach Ken Loeffler has announced A&M's Varsity basketball schedule for next year, which will include a five-game tour of the East, playing games against some of the top teams in that section of the country.

Memphis State at Memphis, Tenn., is the first opponent on the eastern road trip and was a finalist in the NIT tourney in Madison Square Garden this past season, losing to Bradley by one point, 84-83.

Wake Forest is the second opponent at Winston-Salem, N. C., and it is expected that the Aggies will open a new field house for the Deacons.

The Aggies open the season for the University of Richmond in Richmond, Va.

Continuing to engage top-flight competition, the Cadet cagers open at 17,000 seating capacity field house with Ohio State in Columbus, Ohio and follow with Temple University in Philadelphia before returning to Texas and the Southwest Conference tourney in Houston on Dec. 26-28.

Only other non-conference games on the schedule are with St. Mary's U. in San Antonio, opening the season for both clubs, and a February engagement with Houston.

Texas Tech will be playing as a member of the SWC for the first time and it will be the first time for the Aggies to meet the Red Raiders since 1954 when A&M lost 58-55, in only the second game ever played with the Lubbock school.
