

Only One Basketballer

Aggies Sign 16 High School Stars

Unofficial announcements of the signing of several high school athletes by the A&M athletic department to letters of intent have leaked out from newspaper sources across the state.

The 1956 Southwest Conference champion Aggies have cornered 15 prospects in football, and, one outstanding basketball prospect. It is not the policy of the Athletic Department to release these names and their signing of letters-of-intent or scholarship agreements cannot be confirmed.

Those reported as planning to attend A&M are quarterback Jerry Rogers and end Thomas Moore of Navasota; six-man footballer Jerry Peveto from Orangefield, regarded as a terrific prospect; tackles Jack White and Arthur Landry of Port Arthur; center Bill Zaleski and halfback Bill Bryant of Temple; center Tommy Morris of Houston San Jacinto; tackle Bobby Greenwood, two-year all-stater from Lake Charles, La.; center David DeCordova, fullback David Wilson and tackle Charley Cummings of Beaumont High; end Nolan Adams of Port Neches and halfback Ronnie Martell of Orange.

Elliot Craig is the basketball player and was an outstanding starter on district champion teams at Beaumont's French High. Craig is a 6-1 guard and playmaker.

BULLETIN

HOUSTON, (AP)—Randy Sims, Houston's leading schoolboy football scorer last fall, will join the Texas Aggies in September.

The Stephen F. Austin High School two-sport letterman said Wednesday he would sign an Aggie letter of intent after baseball season.

With big name stars going elsewhere, it seems that the A&M recruiting story will be as in 1956, one of quantity in high school unknowns.

Hard-Hitting Cadets Try SMU on Kyle Field

By BARRY HART

With the loser destined for the Southwest Conference cellar, A&M entertains the SMU Mustangs Friday and Saturday on Kyle Field.

Tomorrow's encounter is scheduled for 3 p.m. with the second game at 2 Saturday.

Both the Ponies and the Aggies find themselves in a tie with the Rice Owls for the conference basement with 1-4 records. The Cadets of Coach Beau Bell, after having handed four league games to three foes, will be without the services of sophomore hurler Donnie Hullum, the Baytown righthander. Hullum was hit on the left elbow by a pitched ball in Wednesday's practice and will be out for at least two weeks with a bone chip.

He scored 67 points, did the punting for the Rattlers and as a part-time defensive halfback, intercepted eight passes.

A recipient of 26 of those passes was Thomas Moore, three-year letterman end and a 1956 AA all-stater for the Rattlers. Moore, a 6-1, 185-pounder, scored nine touchdowns and gained 310 yards on his pass receptions.

End Nolan Adams of Port Neches, an all-stater in 1955 when the Indians won the AAA state championship, was not considered large enough for college ball, but after a year's layoff he grew up and now stands 6-3 and weighs 195.

Zaleski was all-district at Temple and honorable mention all-state. He has been selected to play in the Texas High School all-star game in San Antonio in August. Bryant has announced that he plans to attend A&M and will sign as soon as the high school baseball season is over.

Morris, the center from Houston, was a two-year letterman at San Jacinto. He weighs 198 and is 6-2½.

ski, who has thrown only two innings and owns a 9.00 ERA.

SMU brings into town a team with probably the lowest batting average in the league. The Mustangs are stroking the ball at a meager .169 percentage. Only one regular, first-baseman Don Carter, has more than a .300 average. Carter has seven hits in 18 at bats for a fine .388 mark.

The Mustangs' only win is at the expense of the cellar-sharing Owls while they have lost twice to Texas and once each to Rice and TCU.

A&M, on the other hand, has seen four games fly out the window, with their only victory against Baylor. Practically out of the pennant race, the Maroon is hitting the ball better than in many years past and still have one of the top teams in the league, despite their four losses.

Newton will probably get the nod tomorrow. The Galveston leftie has a 1-1 record, but sports a fine 2.66 ERA and has struck out 28 batters in 27 innings.

Ed Dudley, who recently joined the Aggie nine at the end of spring football training, will probably start in the outfield for the first time. Dudley, the Pampa junior who had scouts raving about him as a freshman, didn't play much in 1956, but his big bat could help.

Three Cadet regulars are pasting the ball at a better-than-.300 clip. Tied for the lead are Wendell Reed and Gary Herrington, both with .333. Jim Smotherman stands third with .310 while Lupe Fraga shows a .294 mark. Smotherman leads in runs batted in with eight.

Fish Batter Allen With 17 Hits, 15-6

A&M's Fish won another nightmare baseball game Wednesday, defeating the Allen Academy Ramblers, 15-6, in Bryan's Travis Park.

Fish batters had a field day, teeing off on two Allen pitchers for 17 hits, including seven extra-base blows.

Centerfielder Jess Foster led Fish batters with four hits in six trips and slammed out a double. Firstbaseman Bill Houchin blasted out three hits in six tries, one a triple, and had two runs batted in.

Power in the Fish batting order was supplied by Dink Patterson, second-baseman from North Dallas, who hammered a single, double and triple in five trips to the plate and batted in three runs.

Percy Sanderson was the starter on the mound for Coach Les Palmer's freshmen and went the route to gain credit for the win. Lawrence Kuhl started on the mound for the Ramblers and absorbed the loss, being relieved by Jack Arnold in the seventh.

Though being credited with the win, Sanderson, for the most part was ineffective throughout. He allowed six hits, walked nine and struck out seven. In fact, about the only thing Sanderson did not do was make an error, and posted marks in the score book for being left on base, hitting a batter, tossing a wild pitch, batting two for six and batting in a run. One of his hits was a double.

The Fish scored three times in the first inning only to see the Ramblers tie it up with three counters in the last of the third. Scoring four in the fourth, the Fish took a lead that they were never to relinquish.

Other hitters for the Fish were James Turpin with two for six and an RBI; Gerald Walling with two for six and a double and two RBIs. J. E. Carroll doubled for his only hit. Only one starter for the Fish failed to hit.
