

Mrs. Bailey Heads Secretaries Week

Mrs. Clyde Bailey has been appointed local chairman of Secretaries Week April 21-27, Mrs. Lionel Olyer, president of the Bryan-College Station Chapter of the National Secretaries Association, announced today.

"Since the success of business is dependent on the abilities of executives and their assistants, secretaries are accepting the responsibilities of such assistants and are sharing in the duties of management teams," Mrs. Bailey said.

According to Mrs. Olyer, purposes of Secretaries Week are to make a secretarial career attractive to high school and college graduates; to encourage employed secretaries to equip themselves as administrative assistants to their employers by participation in educational programs; and to urge management's cooperation in elevating the professional standards of secretaries.

"In addition to our educational features," Mrs. Olyer said, "the Bryan College Station Chapter recognizes its responsibilities to our community, and are willing to contribute our secretarial services to further any civic or community projects within our city."

Social Whirl

A pot-luck supper is planned by Agricultural Education Wives for 6:30 p.m. today in the social room of the Memorial Student Center.

New officers were elected by the Bryan-College Station Chapter of the National Secretaries Association (International) at its meeting last Tuesday.

They are Mrs. Kelly Francklow, president; Mrs. Harvey Hall, vice president; Mrs. Frank Zubik, recording secretary; Mrs. Bert Deauquier, corresponding secretary, and Miss Alma Kasner, treasurer. Installation will be conducted at the May meeting.

Final plans were made for the chapter's Boss Night Dinner to be held next Tuesday at the Oaks.

Civil Engineering Wives have changed their spring picnic to a wiener roast at 5:30 p.m. April 24 in Hensel Park. Faculty members and families of wives are invited. A covered dish should be brought by each family, and reservations should be called in to VI 6-6216 or TA 3-3714.

A meeting of the Oceanography and Meteorology Student Wives Club is scheduled for 8 this evening in the south solarium of the YMCA.

DISQUALIFIED

"About half of the freshmen were at their rooms. When someone was not at their room, I would leave a piece of paper asking votes with my name and office I am seeking. Van Winkle's name was on the paper because we are campaigning together," Laningham said.

"I plan to appeal to the Student Senate. I might be wrong, but a whole section of the College regulations is devoted to explaining student campaigns. I studied that and could not see that I was doing wrong. I talked to Mr. Hardesty and he did not make it clear to me just what is not considered personal solicitation."

Hardesty said results from the freshman part of today's election would be thrown out and another election held if the senate reverses the election commission's decision.

The commission was acting on a formal complaint submitted by Frank W. Spiller, Herbert D. Burling, Norman Dowdy, Andy McDougal, James Davis, Charles B. Gaines, Roberto Martinez, Thomas E. Downs and Tyrone S. Clifford.
