

Aggie, Longhorn Golfers Rained Out

The postponing of a dual golf meet with the University of Texas because of poor green conditions places the Aggies farther behind in a schedule which finds them already lagging behind other SWC schools.

Coach Joe Fagan announced today that "the recent rainy weather has prevented the ground crew from trimming the greens and the fairways are in poor condition."

The meet with Texas has been rescheduled for Thursday, May 2, on the Aggie course. The Aggies meet TCU Monday in Fort Worth. A freshman meet with Texas Thursday was also postponed and rescheduled for Tuesday.

Playing of the Texas series will be an important factor in determining the conference champion since Baylor and Texas are tied for the lead at 17½ to 6½ while A&M finds itself in second place with a 6-6 record after competing in only two dual meets.

A decisive victory over the Steers would place the Aggies in a strong contending position since they have already topped Baylor, 4½ to 1½. A&M lost its only other meet to the Rice Owls in Houston, 4½ to 1½.

To fill in the weekend, Coach Fagan has arranged a 36-hole medal play qualifying round at the Bryan country club for Friday, Saturday and Sunday with the top performers making up the four-some and alternate to play Texas.

Top linksmen for the Cadets this year have been Bobby Nichols, Marcelino Moreno and Gary Fletcher with Jerry Durbin and Binky Mitchella alternating in the other slot.

Reds, Bosox, Chisox, Indians Win in Majors

CINCINNATI, (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs bunched their six hits and, taking advantage of four errors, defeated the Chicago Cubs Thursday, 6-3. It was the Redlegs' fourth consecutive victory. They also have lost four.

Brooks Lawrence was the winning pitcher and Dick Drott, 20-year-old Cincinnati, was the loser. Chicago outhit the Reds, getting 9 safeties.

Consecutive errors by Ernie Banks and Casey Wise gave Cincinnati an unearned run in the first inning. Banks dropped Bob Thurman's high fly for a two-base mis-play and Wise let Gus Bell's grounder go through his legs, Thurman scoring.

Cincinnati added three more runs in the second inning on a single, two doubles and a hit batsman. With George Crowe and Ed Bailey on second and third, Don Hoak doubled off the scoreboard in left center to drive in two of the runs. He scored on Alex Grammas' long fly.

Lawrence retired the Cubs in order until the fourth when they got two hits but were unable to score.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Boston battered five Washington pitchers for 15 hits, including three each by Ted Williams and Dick Gernert, and crushed the Senators, 12-7 yesterday.

Williams walked three times, smashed a double and two singles, and lifted his batting average to .455.

CHICAGO, (AP)—The Chicago White Sox raked five Detroit pitchers for 16 hits, including six doubles, Thursday for a 9-4 victory that bolstered their top spot in the American League and buried the Tigers deeper in the basement.

Grabbing their fifth decision in six starts, the Sox spotted the Tigers two runs in the second inning, then knocked starter Billy Hoedt out with a three-run third and were ahead to stay to hand Detroit its third straight setback and sixth in eight games.

KANSAS CITY, (AP)—The Kansas City Athletics, who humiliated Cleveland with a 17-run outburst Wednesday night, got their come-appearance yesterday as the Indians took a 5-3 decision with the help of a clutch double by Vic Wertz and fine relief pitching by Ray Narleski.

Welch, Not Penberthy Decided Boxers Fate

"I, not Mr. (W.L.) Penberthy, wrote the letter to Andy York", said Barney Welch, director of intramural athletics in a letter to the BATTALION about the censorship of the A&M Boxing Club yesterday.

"It is true that Mr. Penny signed it and I tried to get him to let me sign it, but being the type of man he is, he was willing to take the blame for the letter rather than for me to take the blame," continued Welch in an effort to clarify the point.

The letter was to York, coach of the boxing team, instructing him that the Department of Student Activities would cease recognizing the club as a student activity at the close of the current semester.

"I kept after Mr. Penny to call a meeting of various members of the college to discuss boxing on the A&M campus and finally he did call a meeting at which time boxing was discussed and I proposed that boxing be discontinued and I was instructed by the committee, with my concurrence, to initiate a letter pertaining to the discontinuance of boxing," said Welch in the letter to the Batt.

Much turmoil has resulted over the disqualification of the Boxing Club and members of the team, led by Captain Bill Goode, are circulating a petition that they will bring before Dean Robert Kamm in an attempt to get a hearing and a review of their case.

Welch and Penberthy led the committee that included Kamm, Pete Hardesty, Dean Walter H. Delaplaine and Carl E. Tishler. York was not included at the meeting that decided the fate of the club.

Athletics' Garver Hopeful For Comeback After Win

KANSAS CITY, (AP)—Ned Garver, still one putout away from pitching his first complete baseball game in over a year, got credit for Kansas City's 17-6 rout of Cleveland Wednesday night, and hopes it means a comeback for him.

"When you sit out a whole year, you forget how to do your work," he said. "What I want to do is get plenty of pitching so I can get back in the groove."

It was the 32-year-old veteran righthander's first victory since mid-1955. He was with Detroit at the time, and had been bothered by arm and back trouble since late 1954. Garver pitched three-hit ball for eight innings Wednesday night and retired 15 batters in order before the Indians got to him for five runs in the ninth.

At that point, Manager Lou Boudreau yanked the stocky Ohioan and sent in Virgil Trucks for the final out.
