

Ag Golfers Clobber Horned Frogs, 5-1

A&M got back into the South-west Conference golf title picture yesterday with a resounding, 5-1, victory over the TCU Horned Frogs in Ft. Worth.

The win gave the Aggies of Coach Joe Fagan a league mark of 11-7, good enough for third place in the all-important loss standings. A&M is fourth in the win column, but only SMU and Texas have lost less.

Bobby Nichols and Gary Fletcher shot sub-par 69's against the Froggies at the Worth Hills Golf Course. Nichols beat TCU's Charles Coody, 5 and 4, while Fletcher downed Delzon Elenberg by the same margin. Mickey Mitchell took Jim Rainwater one-up, then combined with Fletcher to drop Rainwater and Elenberg.

Marcelino Moreno tied the Frogs' Don Massingale and he got together with Nichols to tie Coody and Massingale.

The Aggie Fish threesome of Jack Vaughan, Buck Prewitt and Al Jones clobbered the Frogs, 4-0. Their match with the University of Texas Shorthorns scheduled for this afternoon has been postponed due to wet ground.

BACK ON THE CINDERS—A&M's Emmett Smallwood came back after a six-weeks' absence last Friday to take third in the 220-yard low hurdles, second in the broadjump and run first on the Aggies' sprint relay team as the Cadets tied Rice, 62-62, with Baylor at 46.

Stan-The-Man Leads NL Hitters

NEW YORK, (AP)—Off to one of his best starts in his 16-year major league career, Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals holds an early but commanding lead in the National League batting race.

The 36-year-old first baseman is more than 100 points in front of his closest competitor, Joe Adcock of Milwaukee. Musial is hitting an even .500 with 18 hits in 36 times at bat. Adcock's average is .394.

Musial, who has won six National League championships, normally starts slowly each spring. In his first 36 times at bat a year ago he had nine hits for a .250 mark. In 1955, Stan had eight hits in 36 trips in the dugout. In 1952, 1953 and 1954 he had 11 safeties, seven fewer than he's compiled this season.

Ted Williams of Boston, four-time American League batting titleholder, is pacing his circuit with a .395 average. The Red Sox slugger's position, however, is far from secure. Gil McDougald of the New York Yankees and Nellie Fox of the Chicago White Sox are close runners-up with .368 marks.

Final Spurt Gives Ags 62-62 Tie With Owls

Trailing by 13 points with five events remaining, the Aggie tracksters put on a tremendous spurt to tie Rice, 62-62, with Baylor third at 46 on the Kyle Field cinder oval last Friday.

The Bears' mile relay foursome of Tom Fatheree, Henry Cannady, Vic Davis and Allen Mayne kept the Cadets of Coach Frank Anderson from capturing the meet with a come-from-behind victory in the four-lap relay. Davis made up 15 yards on his third lap and gave Mayne a three-yard lead that Aggie Andy Erisman couldn't overcome. At the time the score saw the Owls leading 62-59, and a first win would have given the Maroon five points and the win.

Paul Harrington and Don Carver took second and third in the two-mile run to start the Aggies' final spurt. Then Herman Johnson, Lee Newman and James Roberts swept the first three discus places, an announcement that brought a roar from the partisan crowd.

Rice's Roy Thompson gave the Owls another point margin with a victory in the 220-yard low hurdles as A&M's Emmett Smallwood, running for the first time in six weeks, took third, but Dale Elmore, Smallwood, and Bill Blackstone finished 1-2-4 in the broadjump to bring the Cadets to within three points.

After losing for the first time in the 1957 season in the Dallas meet with Texas, USC, ACC and SMU, the Cadets' Winton Thomas got back on the victory trail with a 13-4 leap in the pole vault. Behind him, as usual, was James Clark, who jumped 13-0.

The only other Aggie first was Eddie Bussa's winning 440-yard dash with Fritzie Connally tying Baylor's Fred Bentley for top honors in the high jump. Both leaped 6-5.

The Baptists' Larry Cowart upset Johnson on his way to a new Baylor shot put record—52-1½. Johnson threw 50-6½.

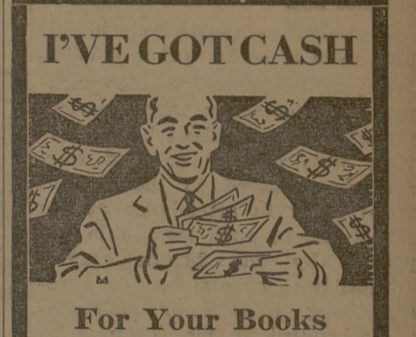

The Owls managed six firsts while Baylor picked up 5½ and A&M 4½, but the Aggies' depth paid off in total points.

The summaries: 440-yard relay—1) Baylor (Jim Miller, Troy Moody, Sonny Howard, Merton Fuquay); 2) Rice. Time 3:19. Mile relay—1) Baylor (Tom Fatheree, Henry Cannady, Vic Davis, Allen Mayne); 2) A&M. Time 3:20.2.

Tigers Capture District Crown

A&M Consolidated sewed up the District 23-AA baseball title with a 9-0 victory over Bellville Friday behind the two-hit pitching of Alton Arnold.

Arnold, earning his fourth district victory without loss, struck out eight and walked only three. This was Arnold's sixth victory of the season against two losses. He has now struck out 49 batters in 28 innings of district play and allowed only one earned run.

The Tigers close out the district campaign against Navasota at 4 p.m. today on Tiger Field with Edgar Feldman (3-1) to start on the mound. A&M previously whipped the Rattlers 3-1.

Third baseman George Carroll paced Tiger hitters against Bellville with two singles in three trips. Steadman Davis, Pete Rodriguez and Feldman doubled and Arnold singled to account for all the Tiger hits.
