

Bosox' Mauch Wins 2B Job at 'Old' 31

NEW YORK, (AP)—At the age of 31 when most ball players have made it or quit trying, Gene Mauch finally has won a job as a regular in the majors. With a .356 average for 11 games, Mauch has been the surprise of the spring with the Boston Red Sox.

Boston is the seventh big league stop, including two brief whirls with Brooklyn, for the veteran who broke into the Dodger organization way back in 1943. On the way he spent one season as a player-manager at Atlanta.

"I have to prove to myself that I can do it," said the determined infielder. "This is the best chance I ever had and I'm going to make the most of it."

"There were opportunities before but I was not ready. If I had been a good ball player then, I would have made it. I just didn't hit at all, period."

The records show Mauch had a puny .216 lifetime average in the majors with Brooklyn, Pittsburgh, Chicago, the Boston Braves, St. Louis Cardinals and the Red Sox. He played seven games at Boston last fall after he was purchased for a reported $75,000 from Los Angeles where he batted .348.

Bolling's Homer in 10th Beats Yanks for Tigers

DETROIT, (AP)—Frank Bolling cracked a one-out 10th inning home run and righthander Duke Maas restricted the world champion New York Yankees to three hits yesterday in a 2-1 Detroit Tiger triumph.

Bolling's home run, his third of the season, dissolved a tense pitching duel. Maas, beating the Yankees for the first time in his career, struck out seven and was in trouble in just one inning—the third, when New York scored its run on Andy Carey's blooper behind first base and Hank Bauer's long double.

Bolling's home run came off Bob Grim, who had taken over at the start of the 10th after starter Johnny Kucks was lifted for a pinch hitter. Kucks yielded only five safeties in the nine innings he worked and the only damage off him was Bolling's fourth inning triple which was converted into a run on a sacrifice fly by Al Kaline.

NEW YORK, (AP)—Johnny Antonelli checked Milwaukee's early rush, pitching the New York Giants to a 4-0 shutout Tuesday night that snapped the Braves' four-game winning streak and handed them their second loss in 11 starts.

CLEVELAND, (AP)—Bob Lemon pitched his first victory of the season for the Cleveland Indians last night 5-1 by holding the Washington Senators to two hits in the eight innings he hurled and hitting a home run off loser Pedro Ramos. Gene Woodling also homered for the Tribe.

PHILADELPHIA, (AP)—Cincinnati's righthander Brook Lawrence scattered nine hits and teammate Frank Robinson swatted a three-run homer Tuesday night as the Redlegs defeated the Philadelphia Phillies 6-3 at Connie Mack Stadium.

CHICAGO, (AP)—With lefty Billy Pierce back in the groove after being bombed from the mound in his last two starts, the Chicago White Sox yesterday stifled the Baltimore Orioles on six hits to maintain their American League lead with a 6-1 victory.

A dropped ball by second baseman Billy Gardner on an attempted force out in the third inning led to an unearned run that gave the Sox a 2-0 bulge. And after yielding a run in the fifth, the Sox shook pitcher Ray Moore with four runs in the seventh to nail down their eighth triumph in 10 games.

THE WELL DRESSED OPERATOR

All who aspire to be cool men on the campus should take careful note of the attire of the really well dressed operator, shown above.

Quiet, good taste is the motif, as may be seen in the conservative cut of the suit. Every item of apparel pictured may be readily obtained by handing your haberdasher a blank check and pronouncing the words, "Ivy me up, please."

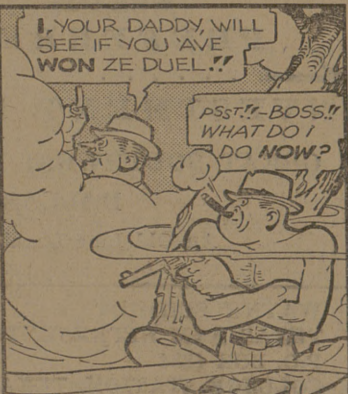

The black eye patch produces a striking effect if handled correctly. It is not even necessary to destroy the sight of one eye. Although some cats, striving for realism, have done so and claim it makes a much more sympathetic relationship with the opposite sex.

It is also considered good form to display a National College Life Policy somewhere on your person. Marks you as an up-and-coming young man with an eye to the future. The possession of a National College Life Plan is indicative of a man who knows his investments and knows his savings plans. They are available only to college men. Talk it over with your campus representative today.
