

SWC Officials Talk Today

AUSTIN — Officials of the Southwest Conference start moving into Austin today for what should be the quietest meeting in years. There is little on the legislative front, with no talk of expansion. Some rules violations have been rumored but conference officials said there was nothing out of the ordinary along this line. It appears no school is in the hot seat over recruiting.

Fish Top Allen 6-1; Meet Texas Friday

The Fish stretched their win streak to five in a row yesterday behind the southpaw slants of Don Pettavino who tossed a neat five-hit, 6 to 1 victory over Allen Academy on Fish field.

A crack at the Texas Short-horns in Austin Friday will offer more than the traditional rivalry between the two schools with the Fish looking for a sixth straight victory and at the same time hoping to end a Shorthorn win streak that has now mounted to 18 consecutive games.

The Shorthorns will appear here against the Fish next Tuesday at 3 p.m. on Kyle Field. A&M has a 5-1 record this year and Texas is 6-0.

The Freshman put together three, two-run innings in the fourth, sixth and eighth for the win over Allen with Pettavino helping his own cause by singling in two runs. J. B. Carroll also batted in two runs on a single and sacrifice fly.

Tuesday Coach Les Palmer's Fish copped a doubleheader from the Baylor Cubs in Waco with Percy Sanderson winning the opener 7-2 and Hollis Hood twirling a fine, two-hit shutout in the second game to win 9-0.

Catcher Gerald Walling of Spring Branch gained some .197 percentage points in the three games and is now batting a fine .364. Walling batted in three runs in the first Baylor game and got two hits in each of the last three games. He leads in RBIs with eight.

Lefthanded first baseman Bill Houchin took over the batting lead on the team with .391 and has five RBIs. Jess Foster, centerfielder, slapped out a triple and single and batted in two runs to pace A&M hitters in the second Baylor game, although his average dropped somewhat. He is batting .375 on nine hits and also has two doubles.

Sanderson has pitched the most innings for the Fish at 27 to post an ERA of 2.98 and striking out 18 and walking 19 in the process. Pettavino has the top ERA at 0.72 for 13 innings. He has struck out 10 and walked six.

The Lake Jackson righthander, Hood, was impressive against the Cubs and his ERA dropped to 1.93 in 14 innings. Hood has walked only five and sent 10 batters down swinging.

Ag Soccer Team Mauls Houston, 10-1

Scoring four times in the first half, the Aggie Soccer team increased the pace to the torrid degree in the second period to crush the visiting Houston Soccer Club, 10-1, on the A&M field Sunday afternoon.

Roberto Ildarraz and Carlos Salinas paced the Aggie attack with three goals each while Jacinto Iocovone kicked in a pair, with Victor Artecona and Jaime Quesada adding one each to the huge A&M total.

The Aggies, who have lost just once this season, journey to Houston for a return match May 12.

Three Golfers, One Net Man In SWC Meet

Three Aggie golfers and a net man are in Austin today, Friday and Saturday for the Southwest Conference meet.

Leading the A&M linksmen is Bobby Nichols, the 1956 individual champion, who is joined by Marcelino Moreno and Jerry Durbin while Rex Reed tries his hand on the clay courts.

Team championships have been decided in both sports with Baylor winning the golf title and A&M and the University of Texas tying for the runner-up position. Under conference rules, the first and second team send four men each to the league meet while third and fourth send two and the others one.

Since the Aggies and the Longhorns tied for second, it was de-decided that Baylor would have four, A&M and Texas three each.

The golf tournament, with 15 entries, is at the Austin Country Club with 72 holes to be played. The tennis tourney will be at the Penick courts and has 16 entries. Sammy Giammalva of Texas returns to defend his tennis singles crown, teaming with a new partner—Richard Keaton—in the doubles.
