Woods Wives New Officers Windup Year Installed As In Gala Style Club Year Ends

Their annual spring picnic last Saturday and a business meeting Monday evening at the home of Nancy Langford, wound up the year's calendar of activities for the members of the Range and Forestry Wives club.

When the club meets again in the fall, the following officers will be in charge: Virginia Box, president; Sally Davis, vice-president; Cordelia Springfield, secretary-treasurer; Charlene Ragsdale, council representative; Shirley Gumert, reporter; and Mary Nell Copeland, parliamentarian. Mrs. Frank Gould will be sponsor.

Including families and faculty, 54 persons attended the picnic, with square dancing climaxing the evening's entertainment.

Dr. Vernon Young head of the department, awarded PhD degrees to Virginia Box, Virginia Ryerson, Joyce Morgan, Nancy Langford, Billie Buck, Sue Williamson and Patsy Folsom.

The Campus Study Club closed its activities for the season with an installation tea on Tuesday afternoon at the YMCA.

Mrs. C. W. Crawford, program chairman, introduced Mrs. J. C. Culpepper who gave a brief resume of the aims of the club and named the officer duties of each as she conducted the installation of Mrs. W. S. Allen, president; Mrs. D. M. Bass, vice-president; Mrs. Harvey T. Kennedy, recording secretary; Mrs. B. F. K. Mullins, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Jarrell D. Gray, treasurer; Mrs. Joseph C. Brusse, reporter; Mrs. L. M. Haupt, historian; Miss Jennie Oliver, auditor; and Mrs. Bardin H. Nelson, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Culpepper presented to Mrs. Allen, president, a silver basket, the club's emblem of friendship, and also the gavel, emblem of authority. Mrs. Bardin H. Nelson, retiring president, then presented Mrs. Allen with a club president's pin.

Outgoing officers were hostesses for a social hour following the installation when punch and iced cakes were served by Mesdames Allen and Nelson. The tea table, laid with a white linen cutwork cloth, was centered with an arrangement of spring flowers.
