

Nuclear Scientist Assigned To A&M

Richard E. Wainerdi, a nuclear scientist, has joined the staff of the Texas Engineering Experiment Station, it has been announced by Fred J. Benson, vice director.

Wainerdi will serve as associate research engineer in association with the AGN reactor being established as a facility by the Station.

His nuclear work at A&M will be in connection with the School of Engineering. It will involve training and other schoolwide activities as associated with isotope handling and nuclear reactors.

Wainerdi who comes to A&M from the Dresser Industries of Dallas, is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma with distinction as a bachelor of science in petroleum engineering in 1952. He worked with the Shell Oil Co. in Louisiana and Texas and during the Korean war entered the U. S. Air Force as a second lieutenant in the field of atomic armament systems.

He has done graduate work at Pennsylvania State University and received an MS degree in 1955 and lacks only the dissertation requirements for the Ph.D. degree. During graduate study at Pennsylvania he was a Stanolind fellow in petroleum engineering.

During this training his design problem was an organic moderated course at Oak Ridge. Later he was one of the few students chosen over the United States to take training in the reactor school at Oak Ridge for a full year.

During this training his design problem was an organic moderated reactor. After his graduate schooling Wainerdi joined Dresser Industries in Dallas as coordinator of nuclear activities. He is still a consultant to Dresser Industries and to other concerns in atomic energy.

Kiwanis Pirates Leads Little League Minors

Only as a result of having played one more game than their chief challengers, the Kiwanis Club Pirates, do the College Station Recreation Council Indians lead the American Minor Little League South.

The Indians have won two and lost none, while the Pirates came out on the long end of the score in their lone game to trail the loop leaders by one-half game. In third place, come the Lions Club Cubs, who smashed the cellar-dwelling College Station Recreation Council Dodgers 19-3 in Tuesday night's activity. The Dodgers rest in fourth place with an 0-3 record.

In the red-hot batting race, the early season leader is John Skrabank, of the Cubs, with a .750 mark. He is trailed by the Indians' Bill Ewens, .667; the Pirates' Scotty Manning, .600; Mark Hayes, .571; and John Perry, .500 and the Cubs' Allan Laverty, .429.

The top player in runs-batted-in is Ewens, with 11, and the RBI runner-up is Manning, with six. The Indians' Jimbo Robison has scored the most runs, seven, while the Pirates' John Southern and the Indians' James Beamer have each tallied six times.

A&M Professor Joins TU Staff

Dr. W. P. Ewens, of the Department of Education and Psychology, has joined the staff of the College of Education, University of Texas, for the first six weeks of summer school.

He is directing a guidance workshop for the University of Texas in the Port Arthur public schools. He will return to teaching at A&M for the second summer term where he is in charge of the counseling program for the Department of Education and Psychology.

The educational system in the United States now can handle 80 percent or more of eligible students. In 1900 it could take care of only 11 and one-half percent of eligibles.

What A Difference The Summer Makes

Texas Health Department Has Protective Agency

Last month an Austin State Hospital physician called the State Health Department to report that a radium needle, being used to treat a patient with skin cancer, had been dislodged or lost.

Did the Department have radiation detection equipment with which the needle might be located? The Department did, and the needle was subsequently found in a gauze bandage.

This incident, one of many that take place every month, illustrates the manner in which the Department's Division of Occupational Health, working in cooperation with private physicians and other agencies, is quietly going about the task of protecting citizens from the dangers of excessive radiation exposures.

A great deal has been said in recent months about the imminent peril the entire nation is facing from excessive radiation. Much of that information has been true in general, but some of it has been misconstrued to the point where people have cancelled much-needed x-ray treatments or examinations because of unjustified fear of radiation exposure.

One of the state's leading radiologists, writing in the Texas Medical Association Journal, has summed up the situation by saying that curtailment of radiologic examinations would cause a failure in diagnosis that would result in many times the number of deaths than would theoretically occur from radiation accumulation in the population 20 generations from now.
