FATHER'S DAY

Plan Dad's Favorite Meal!

OUTSTANDING HIGH SCHOOL biologists from all over the state are attending A&M this summer under the Summer Enrichment Program. Shown above are some of 25 students at A&M. With them in the center of the picture is Dr. C. C. Doak, head of the Biology Department, who is their sponsor.

Father's Day Committee Selects Theme For 1957

"Integrity Starts in the Home" is the theme of 1957 Father's Day, according to the National Father's Day Committee. The day will climax the observance of Father-Child Month, May 16-June 16.

This year's theme is taken from the words of Joseph N. Welch, Boston lawyer who gained fame in the Army-McCarthy hearings and who was named 1956 Father of the Year.

In accepting this honor, Welch said, in part:

"Liberty, and particularly liberty which stems from the home, actually involves attitudes and disciplines which must start in the home, and, if absent, result in fatal defects in the child, the youth, and the man.

"For Liberty is actually a disciplined attitude toward life and toward others.

"Liberty does not result in a wild gallop across time and space and the lives of others, (See FATHER'S DAY, Page 5)

Nippon Actress Becomes Star

TOKYO (AP)—Sobs wracked the little school teacher's body. "I'm a failure and a misfit," she moaned.

Today, five years later, Miss Sachiko Hidari is one of Japan's top actresses, showered with fan mail and recipient of numerous awards.

"I'm simply amazed by it all," she admits with a typical, quiet smile.

Sachiko, 26, a sort of Japanese Mitzi Gaynor in appearance, was named "Best Actress" at the 1956 International Film Festival in Dublin for her role in "I Am On Trial." And a leading Tokyo newspaper called her recent performance in "Jochukko" (the maid servant and the boy) "Best Of The Year."

That's a long way from the plain, young lady who tearfully handed the school principal her resignation.

Some how in the depth of her depression, she turned to a dramatics school—"I don't exactly know why," she says.

Within three months her class presented a Japanese drama. A Motion picture scout was in the audience. By nightfall Sachiko was signed for the lead role in "Youngsters' Mistake."
