Midkiff's Red Sox Lead At Mid Mark

It's the Red Sox in the driver's seat in the American Little League South as the race approaches the close of the first half of the schedule.

Taking three straight victories within the past week, Ken Midkiff's Red Sox now stand at 5-2 with but two games left on their slate in the first half of the season. The White Sox, piloted by Bill Bates, are in the runner-up slot with a 3-2 mark and still have an excellent chance of overhauling the pace-setters. In third place come Hank Mills' Senators, who are now at 2-3 after the Orioles, managed by Wayne Smith, rest in fourth place due to their 1-4 record.

The league's leading sluggers fell slightly during the past week, which was highlighted by standout hurling—including a double one-hitter between the Senators' Larry Godfrey and the Red Sox' Randy Ransdell in an important tilt which the Red Sox captured 1-0.

Tomorrow's action sees the Senators and Orioles tangling at 5:30 at the College Station Little League Park and the White Sox meeting the Red Sox at 7:30 in the "big" game.

Baylor Scholarship Open To Aggies

One scholarship to the Baylor School of Law is available to a prospective law student from A&M. The scholarship is open to students graduating from A&M at the end of the first summer term and is for the school year beginning next September.

Interested students may contact Arthur Stewart of the Business Administration Division, Room 112, Francis Hall before July 10.

Recreation Council Compete In Meets

College Station Recreation Council participants—or at least a total of 13 of them in two different sports, swimming and tennis—see their first "outside competition" of the summer this week-end.

Eight of Coach Art Adamson's swimmers are entered in the Crystal Pool Invitational Swimming Meet, due to be held in Houston tomorrow and Saturday. Competing in the Coca-Cola-sponsored Lufkin Invitational Tennis Tournament, scheduled for a three-day run beginning today, are five of Coach Horace Schaffer's netters. With entries in only the girls' competition, the CS Recreation Council will have the following quartet in the 14-and-under age division tomorrow at Houston: Pam Hayes, breast stroke; Sally Lehr, breast stroke; Pixie Schiller, backstroke; and Patsy Varvel, freestyle. Entered in the senior division are Gail Schlesselman, breast stroke; Ann Cleland, breast stroke; Judy Litton, freestyle and Mary Frances Badgett, backstroke.

In the past, College Station swimmers have done well in the Crystal Pool meet. They were not entered in this annual affair last year, but in 1955, College Station captured the intermediate team title, and in 1954, local tankmen won the junior team crown.

The Lufkin net tourney, with only one division in boys' and girls' play—18-and-under—has among its entries five College Station strokers. Competing in both singles and doubles are Bruce Thompson, Jack Armistead, Pam Sperry, Don Avera, and Susan Dowell. Thompson and Armistead will team in doubles, while the latter three will select their partners from among other cities' entries after their arrival in Lufkin.

An unusual item about this tournament is the fact that the trophies, that are presented to champions and runners-up in each classification, are hand-carved by Tournament Director Fred Bates. The finals in all classes will be held Saturday, with singles competition being held today and doubles play on tap for tomorrow.

Pirates In Crucial Tilt With Indians

In the College Station Minor League activity this afternoon, the Pirates, 3-0 for the season, clash with the runner-up Indians, 3-1 for the year, in a crucial tilt at 5:30. A victory for the Pirates gives them at least a tie for the first-half crown, while an Indian triumph propels them into the loop leadership by one-half game.

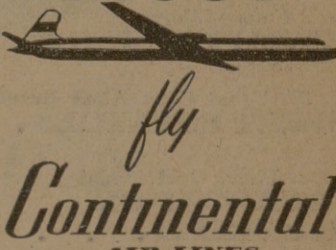

Tonight's 7:30 battle sends the Cubs, resting in third place with a 2-2 mark, against the Dodgers, who are still seeking their initial win after five straight defeats.

The hitting still seems to be ahead of the pitching in the Minor League with four players clubbing at a clip of .500 or better. In the pitching department, the top earned run average is but 4.50.
