NEW CHURCH UNDERWAY—Construction on the new St. Mary's Catholic Chapel at the North Gate, begun the latter part of May, has progressed to this stage at the present time. CS Netters Drop Lufkin Jr Open Tennis Match

Six College Station Recreation Council entries were among the field of 93 netters from Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas in the Lufkin Junior Open Tennis Tournament during the past weekend, but the locals, faced with some stiff competition, failed to advance very far.

Coach Horace Schaffer's netters won four matches and dropped ten in the rain-splattered, four-day meet, which was sponsored by Coca-Cola and highlighted by the unique, hand-carved trophies made by Tournament Director Fred (Porky) Bates.

Don Avera was ranked number six in boys singles, where the top seeded player was Lake Jackson's Tom Carter, who, until recently, resided in Bloomington, Indiana, and owns a high national ranking among the country's junior boys. Avera took his opening match easily but lost a close contest in the second round of boys singles by a 9-7, 6-3 count. In boys doubles, Avera teamed with Commerce's Bob Peek, and they won their initial encounter, 6-1, 8-6, but met defeat, 6-4, 6-0, in the second round.

College Station's three other entries in boys singles—Bill Jones, Jack Armistead, and Bruce Thompson—all bowed in the opening round. Jones' defeat was at the hands of the number one-seeded Carter, while Thompson lost to third-ranked Sam Susser of Corpus Christi. Armistead and Jones paired in boys doubles and were defeated by the eventual doubles titlists of the tourney, Baytown's LeRoy Como and Tyler's Bill Ingram, in the first round.

JOHN PAXSON, who plays the role of "Ben," in the summer operetta, "Smokey Mountain," is an experienced singer. He has studied voice and has sung with the Boston Symphony Orchestra.
