

Craig Of Ag Ed Attends Workshop

R. N. Craig, employed jointly by the Departments of Agricultural Education and Agricultural Engineering at A&M, will attend a two weeks' Vocational Agriculture Teacher Workshop at the California Polytechnic College, San Luis Obispo, June 17 through 29. Craig, who is a farm shop specialist in the Department of Agricultural Education, is attending the workshop so he may improve further the shop instructional program at Texas A&M.

Dime Shame

LIVINGSTON, N.J., (AP)—Township police are dishing out dimes for telephone calls to stranded motorists here but funds are running short.

The men in blue have been leaving the dimes at isolated telephone booths on the highway with a note to return the money. So far it's been an 85 per cent losing proposition.

Local Swimmers Trek To Houston

A large contingent of 20 College Station Recreation Council tankers trek to Houston to compete in the Dad's Club Gulf Midget Junior Championships tomorrow and Saturday hoping to do as well, or better, than their older counterparts did in the Crystal Pool Invitational Swimming Meet last week end.

Preliminaries tomorrow and Saturday begin at 9 a.m. each day, while the finals start at 7 p.m. each of the next two days.

Coach Art Adamson's swimmers in the Girls Midget Division (10-and-under) include Susan Braley, 25-yard breast stroke; Sharon Covey, 25-yard butterfly; Margaret Brown, 25-yard breast stroke; Virginia Patterson, 25-yard backstroke, and Susan Medlen, 25-yard backstroke. In the Boys Midget Division (10-and-under), local entries are Tommy Kahan, 25-yard freestyle; Steve Darwall, 25-yard free style; Randy Darwall, 25-yard free style; Ken Fisher, 25-yard backstroke, and Charles Castle, 25-yard backstroke. The former five will team to enter the girls 100-yard medley relay and 100-yard free relay, while the latter quintet will pool their efforts in the boys 100-yard medley relay and 100-yard free relay.

C.S. Recreation Council participants in the Boys Junior Division (ages 11 and 12) are as follows: Gary Kimberling, 50-yard breast stroke and 50-yard free style; Randy Ransdell, 50-yard free style; Peter Dehlinger, 50-yard free style; Johnny Badgett, 50-yard backstroke, and Scotty Manning, 50-yard backstroke. In the Girls Junior Division (ages 11 and 12), Brazos County representatives include Becky Kahan, 50-yard butterfly; Linda Braley, 50-yard free style; Rosemary Thompson, 50-yard backstroke; Margaret Castle, 50-yard free style, and Pam Walters, 50-yard backstroke. All of these Junior Division entrants will also swim on their respective relay teams.

Competing in Houston last Friday and Saturday in the Crystal Pool Invitational Swimming Meet, College Station tankers swept to four individual first places, one-by Pam Hayes in the 100-yard breast stroke—in the 14-and-under age division and three —by Gail Schlesselman in the individual medley, Judy Litton in the 400-yard free style, and the team of Miss Schlesselman, Miss Litton, Ann Cleland, and Mary Frances Badgett in the 400-yard medley relay—in the senior division.

Other points managed by the locals included a second place by Miss Schlesselman in the senior division 200-yard breast stroke, third place by Miss Cleland in the same event, and a fifth place finish by Miss Badgett in the 100-yard backstroke, besides additional points in the 14-and-under age classification on Miss Hayes' third place in the individual medley, Patsy Varvel's fourth place in the 100-yard free style, Sally Lehr's sixth place in the 100-yard breast stroke, and the fourth place finish of the medley relay team composed of the latter three plus Pixie Schiller, who also competed in the 100-yard backstroke.

This was the first meet of the summer for Coach Adamson's swimmers.

COACH BOBBY ROGERS, new basketball mentor, is set to take on his new job. The successful East Texas coach was a former player at Oklahoma A&M.

CS Little Leaguers Wait To Begin Last Half

By MAURICE OLIAN

Idle this week due to Boy Scout Camp, the four teams of the College Station Little League are eagerly awaiting the beginning of the second half of the season, although their first-half champion has not yet been decided.

Ken Midkiff's Red Sox have already completed their first half schedule and own a 6-3 mark, good enough to assure them of at least a tie for the first-half crown. The White Sox, however, are right behind with a 5-3 record, and should they win their postponed game with the third-place Orioles would deadlock the Red Sox for the title of the opening half.

Meanwhile, the second half gets underway at Little League Park Monday with a double-header. In the 5:30 tilt, the Orioles tangle with the White Sox, while the Red Sox battle the Senators in the 7:30 game.

After the second half has been completed, the victors of each portion of the divided season are due to collide for the 1957 American League South championship.

Pitching continued to "catch up" with the hitting, for the most part, in last week's action. League batting leader Dennis Muth of the Red Sox fell slightly but still possesses a healthy lead with a .464 mark. One of his teammates, Charles Gandy, is the only other player swatting the ball for better than a .400 percentage.

Steadily pulling into position for a shot at the loop batting crown, Gandy is now clubbing .414. He is trailed by the Orioles' Jimmy Nail, .350; the Senators' Sidney Coufal, .346; the White Sox's Harold Cooner and Jimbo Bevans, .316 and .308, respectively, and Jody Rush of the Senators, .308.

Muth is in front in total bases, with 29; in home runs with four; in base hits, with 13; in runs scored, with 11; runs batted in, with 14; doubles, with four and in slugging percentage, with a phenomenal 1.036 pace.

In only two other offensive departments—triples and stolen bases—does the lead belong to someone other than the red-hot Muth. The Red Sox's Hubert Hearne has belted the league's only triple, while Hearne, Bevans, and the White Sox's Bobby Houze own four stolen bases apiece.

Among the pitchers, Bevans and Randy Ransdell, of the Red Sox, are the possessors of perfect 0.00 earned run averages. Muth, with a 3-0 record, leads the loop with 30 strikeouts. He has twirled the most complete games, three, along with Jackie Ross, of the Orioles, and Ozzie Burke, of the White Sox.

Rescue Squad

FRANKLIN, Ky., (AP)—A voice on the telephone told the sergeant at Police Headquarters to "come out to my house. Something awful is about to happen."

When police arrived at the Kratzert home, they found 4-year-old Billy hiding behind a couch.

"What's the matter, feller?" asked the law.

"She was going to spank me," said the youngster, pointing at a baby-sitter.

Police persuaded the sitter to let Billy's parents take care of the matter when they returned.
