

Rev. Robert O. Cooper

Rev. Cooper Joins A&M Wesley Staff

The Rev. Robert O. Cooper recently joined the staff of the Wesley Foundation at A&M.

Formerly he served as director of the Wesley Foundation at West Texas State College in Canyon and at Texas Women's College in Denton.

He also served as dean of the Texas Methodist Student Movement Annual Thanksgiving Conference for several years and as counselor of the student council of the Texas Methodist Student Movement.

At A&M he will work jointly with Methodist students and with the Texas Methodist Student Movement on a state level. In his position as program director of the A&M Wesley Foundation, he will work with the Rev. Robert Monk, foundation director.

EE Department Sponsors EE Short Course

Eight electrical engineers from widely scattered sections of Texas, plus two from Arkansas and New Mexico, are attending the short course on Application of Symmetrical Components to Power Systems being held here.

The short course ends Friday.

Sponsored by the Electrical Engineering Department, the advanced course is offered at the request of electrical engineers desiring additional study on application of the mathematical method of analysis of electrical networks. Later in the month the third annual basic short course on Theory and Application of Symmetrical Components will be held at the college.

Lewis M. Haupt Jr., of the Electrical Engineering Department, is conducting the short course, assisted by Mrs. Marie F. Reel, instructor.

Electrical engineers attending the advanced course include Ray Anderson and Lionard Schwobel, Texas Electric Service Co., Fort Worth; E. C. Rummel and S. F. Skinner, City of Austin; Jim Brabston, Arkansas Power and Light Co., Pine Bluff, Ark.; Byron Broyles, Central Power and Light Co., San Benito; C. H. Lackey, Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Co., Texas City; Clarence McKee, Public Service Co. of New Mexico, Albuquerque, N. M.; W. E. Talley, Dow Chemical Co., Freeport and C. Ray Thomas, H. E. Bovay Jr., consulting engineers, Houston.

I did not whistle at her. I whistled because the dress she is wearing looks like it was cleaned by —
