

Great-Grandmother Celebrates Birthday

SUDBURY, Ont. (AP) — Mrs. Augustine Piquette, 90, says, "A woman might as well be dead as out of fashion."
 She is proud of her slim figure and when interviewed on her 90th birthday was wearing a frock of fine wool fabric in "the very latest style."

 "Why, that's simple," she said, when asked how to live to be 90. "You just eat lots of good red steak, lots of meat for protein, lots of vegetables and leave the sweets alone."

Mrs. Piquette, a resident of Sudbury since she came here in 1909 with her late husband, is a chic 95 pounds.
 She loves to dance and sing. She told guests that she enjoys a good party, and executed a tricky little clog dance and a waltz to prove it.

Fall Fashions Hit New High In Luxury

By DOROTHY ROE
 AP Women's Editor
 American women will shine this winter in clothes that reach a new high in luxury of fabric, richness of color and lavish use of fur trimmings.

New York designers previewing fall fashions show a variety of costumes for all occasions, running the gamut from understated simplicity for daytime to breath-taking elegance for evening.
 Most of the news of the fall collections lies in their varied and handsome fabrics, their bold use of color and the luxury furs that trim everything from suits to evening gowns.

The daytime silhouette is almost uniformly slender, but with more ease of fit, more walking room in skirts, a general feeling of relaxation.
 Suit jackets are casually unfitted, sometimes barely hipbone length, sometimes coming well below the hips, but never nipped at the waist or tightly fitted at any point.

'Travel' Toys Make Vacations More Enjoyable

Required equipment for a family vacation by automobile is a supply of the right kind of toys for the small fry—special toys planned for just such occasions, that can keep a child quiet and entertained for long periods in a confined space.
 Here is some advice from an expert, Gilbert C. Southwick, a leading manufacturer of educational toys.

1. Have a reserve supply of toys, but give the children only one or two at a time.
2. Be sure each child's favorite old toy is included.

Women Have Definite Ideas About Packages

"Women are lazy. They look for convenience, and they have a lot of ideas about improving packages."
 So said Dorothy Diamond, who writes for a business magazine, addressing a recent symposium of the Package Designers Council, for which she acts as a judge in annual packaging awards. Here, she told the packagers, are the things women look for:

1. Ease of storage.
2. Ease of opening.
3. Effectiveness after opening.
4. Package attractive enough to be used on the table.

Miss Diamond listed among pet gripes lipstick cases which tarnish before the lipstick is used and sealed cookie bags which are hard to re-seal.
 She said women would be grateful to the manufacturer who packages foods for the school-box in unit servings.
