Bankers Offer Tips On How To Have Solvent Vacation

Vacations would be wonderful if you didn't get back home broke. This is a common plight of the returning vacationer, but, say the nation's bankers, it needn't be so. Bank statisticians note that 85 million Americans will spend more than 12 billion dollars on holidays this year. And those are figures big enough to arouse the keen interest of bankers, who have got together and issued the following tips on how to have a care-free but solvent vacation.

- If you haven't enough money for the trip you want, you can get a vacation loan at your bank.
- It's more foresighted to start saving for your vacation a year ahead, working out a vacation plan, which banks also will handle, just as they do Christmas saving clubs.
- Don't carry large sums of cash while traveling. Travelers' checks are safer—if they're stolen or lost, you don't lose the money.
- It's a comfortable feeling to carry a letter of credit from your bank, in case you run out of funds in a strange place. This certifies your credit up to a certain amount, and makes a great difference in

Social Whirl

Electrical Engineering Wives and their families will have a picnic Saturday, Aug. 3, at Lake Normangee. The picnic will take the place of the club's regular monthly meeting. The group is to meet at the Student Apartments Office in College View between 4 and 4:30 p.m. on the 3rd. Each family is to bring a covered dish, with the club to furnish hotdogs and drinks. Those who plan to go are asked to call Jeannie Crist, VI 6-5185, or Pat Youints, VI 6-7080.

Aggie Wives Bridge Club will meet at 7:45 tonight in the Memorial Student Center. Hostesses will be Buzzy Thiede and Billie Holder. Prize winners last week were Pat Sprayberry, high, and Buzzy Thiede, second.

the attitude of creditors.

- Don't leave valuables lying around the house while you're away. You can store jewelry, furs and paintings in bank vaults.
- Some banks will help you plan your trip and make reservations for you.
- Before you leave, make a vacation checklist so you'll remember to stop milk deliveries, arrange for lawn care, leave a light burning and notify police to keep an eye on your home while you're away.

CLOVER TIP
DENVER, Colo. (P)—Mrs. Harry Huffman, says she's found the secret of growing four-leaf clovers. "If you let four-leaf clover go to seed, the seed just produces three-leaf clovers," Mrs. Huffman claims. "However, if you pick the blossoms, the plants spread their roots and up come new four leaf plants." She has a bed of four leaf clovers about 15 feet long.

MY PRIVATE MOVIE

There was a day last summer that I kept tucked away in the back of my mind, like a miniature mental movie all my own. Sometimes, when other days aren't quite as bright as this one was, I take it out and reel off a private showing.

It was a Sunday. We'd been to church, Lee and the three children and I. Then we went home and packed up a big picnic lunch and took it down to the creek. It was one of those perfect summer days poets have written about. Everything tasted better than it could possibly have been. When we'd finished eating, the kids sailed their boats while Lee and I stretched out on the grass and looked up in the blue silk sky, all dotted with fleecy white clouds.

We didn't say anything, but I know that we were both thanking God for all the blessings he'd bestowed on us. I know that we were feeling, just then, particularly at peace with ourselves, and with the universe. I was thinking, too, of our kids as they'd come out of Sunday School that morning, with their bright faces glowing, and I gave a silent vote of gratitude to my parents for having raised me in the Church. Now I was able, in turn, to pass on this priceless heritage to my own children.

In this high pressure, jet-propelled age we're living in, we need so much to guide our children in the right way. Without the aid of the Church I, for one, would be at a total loss—and that afternoon I realized it, with particular emphasis.

I suppose, when you come right down to it, we really didn't do so much, that Sunday. But it was a day that left me with a feeling of family unity, of togetherness... I shall never forget.

Sometimes, when things are "at sixes and sevens," a parent needs to take time out to remember just how precious a family is. Whenever I find myself in danger of forgetting—I just dust off my movie and live that Sunday all over again, to myself.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
