

Family Favorites

By EDITH ODEN

(Married students at A&M will know Edith Oden as the helpful and always-pleasant woman who handles college apartment assignments in the Housing Office on campus. She and her husband—who owns and operates Food Town in Bryan—reside with their son, Jerry, in College Station. The Odens also have a married daughter, Judy, who lives with her family—including two-year-old David, in Shawnee, Okla. Jerry will be a junior in mechanical engineering at A&M this fall.)

ALMOND TOFFEE

2 cups sugar
¾ pound butter
Combine all ingredients in heavy sauce pan. Stirring constantly, boil to 305 degrees on thermometer. Pour onto greased flat pan and let cool.

CEREAL MIX SNACKS

Combine:
1 package Cheerios
1 package Rice Chexs
1 package thin pretzels
Mix:
1½ cups melted oleo (3 sticks)
¼ cup bacon drippings
2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
Pour this mixture over the first mixture and bake in 250-degree oven for 1½ hours, stirring often.

FROZEN PINEAPPLE TORTE

3 egg yolks
dash of salt
½ cup sugar
1-9-oz. can crushed pineapple
2 tablespoons lemon juice
Beat egg yolks, salt and ½ cup sugar; add pineapple syrup and lemon juice. Cook over hot, not boiling, water until mixture coats spoon, stirring constantly. Add pineapple; cool.
Make meringue of egg whites and 2 tablespoons sugar. Fold in whipped cream and custard. Coat sides of oiled refrigerator tray with wafer crumbs. Spread half the remaining crumbs over bottom. Pour in custard mixture; cover with remaining crumbs. Freeze firm, about 3 to 4 hours. Serves 6 to 8.

OVEN-FRIED CHICKEN

Season 1 chicken and dip pieces in flour. Make batter of 2 beaten eggs and 2 tablespoons water. Dip chicken pieces in batter, then in bread crumbs. Place in well-greased pan and place in 400-degree oven. After 5 minutes baste with melted butter (½ cup butter to 2 chickens). Bake for 50 minutes.

BAKED TUNA

Mix together:
4 tablespoons flour
3 tablespoons butter, melted
1½ cup milk
¼ teaspoon salt
pepper
1 can cream of mushroom soup
pimento, chopped
1 can tuna
1 egg, beaten

Crumble potato chips and place in greased baking dish (loaf-size). Pour on mixture, then crumble potato chips over top. Bake at 350 degrees about 30 minutes or until firm.

SPAGHETTI SAUCE

Brown in about 3 tablespoons bacon drippings:
2½ pounds beef and
¾ pound pork, ground
together
Add:
2 cloves garlic
½ pound American cheese, grated
3 small cans tomato paste
1 bottle stuffed olives, sliced
1 can mushrooms
¾ cup catsup
1 green pepper, chopped
Simmer about 30 minutes. If too thick, add a little water.

Fur Hats Take Spotlight In Autumn Fashion Parade

Fur fashions start at the top this fall, and the woman who faces winter without a fur hat is going to feel definitely underprivileged.

This may be construed as a break for husbands and fathers who foot the bills, because the girls probably are going to be satisfied to ask for a fur hat instead of a fur coat this year.

Plain cloth coats and winter suits with fur added in small doses in the form of accessories are going to be seen in many fashionable spots, come fall.

Fur hats come in all shapes, sizes and pelts in the fall collection of Sally Victor, but the favorites of this pint-size designer are caps in infinite variety. She shows African caps with pointed backs, worn far back on the head in the manner of belles of the African Gold Coast, with white broadtail and dark mink the favored makings.

READER'S DIGEST

I have just received a letter from Mr. Allan Scott, Director of Community Representatives, which states: "The price of the Digest is going up to $4.00 a year."

"The 8 months for $1 half-price special offer to new subscribers will never be made again after prices advance."

But, YOU still have a chance to take advantage of this special offer! Lower than Christmas rates, either 8 months for $1 or 16 months for $2!

Remember, when prices advance this September, a single copy will cost you 35c. By subscribing now, you can be receiving copies for over a year at only 12½c! Don't wait, order now!

Call: Joel Weber, Bryan-College Station Community Representative, at VI 6-6035. You may pay any time within 2 weeks after ordering. Attention: This offer may be obtained only through Digest Community Representatives. Local business is Good Business. Thank You.
