

Local Tankers Have Good Chance At AAU Championship Swim Meet

Swim Club Scores Many Points In Houston

By MAURICE OLIAN

The College Station Swim Club, its younger members placing in practically every event in which they were entered during the past week-end's Junior Olympics Swimming Meet in Houston's Sharpstown Country Club Pool, sends a potent squad of 17 into San Antonio for the two-day meet which begins there on Saturday.

Carrying the hopes of the College Station Swim Club into the State AAU Swimming Championships this Saturday and Sunday are Frank Holmes, Eileen Cossani, Judy Litton, John Harrington, Skippy Fletcher, Gail Schlesselman, Ann Cleland, Pam Hayes, Dick Hunkler, Orlando Cossani, Bill Farrar, Ann Schlesselman, Mary Frances Badgett, Tetsuo Okamoto, Clara Hernandez, Don Draper, and Patsy Varvel. Of this number, only five—Gail Schlesselman, Farrar, Miss Hayes, Miss Varvel, and Miss Badgett—were among the group that competed in the Gulf Association AAU Junior Olympics last Friday and Saturday.

It was Gail Schlesselman who furnished the highlight for the local tankers in the Junior Olympics. She took first place in the senior girls' 100-meter butterfly in the time of 1:29.4 (matching her own old record for the event in this meet), placed third in the senior girls' 200-meter breast stroke, and finished fourth in the senior girls' 200-meter individual medley.

Farrar grabbed second place in the senior boys' 200-meter breast stroke and captured third place in the senior boys' 100-meter butterfly to account for numerous College Station Swim Club points.

Additional local honors were gathered by Miss Hayes, as she finished third in the intermediate girls' 100-meter breast stroke, placed fourth in the intermediate girls' 100-meter butterfly, and was a member of the intermediate girls' relay team with Pixie Schiller, Sally Lehr, and Miss Varvel to place fourth in the 200-meter medley relay.

Other College Station point-winners included Joe Brusse, individual fourth and sixth places and a relay sixth place in intermediate boys; Miss Badgett, an individual fifth and seventh places in senior boys; Miss Badgett, an individual third place in senior girls; Miss Lehr, an individual eighth place in intermediate girls; Alex Quisenberry, individual seventh place and a relay sixth place in intermediate boys; Andy Adams, a relay sixth place in intermediate boys; and Eddie Lehr, a relay sixth place in intermediate boys.

Intermediate Division (13-14)
Boys' 100-meter freestyle: Joe Brusse, fourth.

Girls' 100-meter breast stroke: Pam Hayes, third, and Sally Lehr, eighth.

Boys' 100-meter backstroke: Alex Quisenberry, seventh.

Girls' 200-meter medley relay: team of Pixie Schiller, Sally Lehr, Pam Hayes, and Patsy Varvel, fourth.

Boys' 200-meter medley relay: CART BEFORE COURSE

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Golf can be a rough game. Mike Thurmond, using an electrically-driven golf cart, suffered a broken collarbone when the cart turned over on him as he ran over an embankment.

Texas Tech, A&M Sell-out Is Anticipated

LUBBOCK—An early ticket sell-out to the Texas Tech-A&M football game here Sept. 28 is expected by Jimmie Wilson, business manager of athletics.

"There's a good possibility that when we finish filling orders on hand we shall have only end zone seats remaining," Wilson said.

"Only the fact that we haven't sent 5,000 tickets to LSU and Baylor, as we did A&M, keep those games from being virtually closed out now," Wilson said.

"There has been a strong ticket sale on the South Plains for the LSU and Baylor games."

Actually, A&M requested 6,200 tickets, and Wilson was able to send only 5,000 to College Station.

A record-breaking season ticket sale which will probably exceed 7,000 and nearly 9,000 student ticket admissions have cut down the number of seats available on a single-game basis. Before individual game tickets went on sale 16,000 of the approximately 23,000 reserved seats in Jones Stadium were already accounted for. Tech students will occupy nearly half of the east stands and one and a half sections of the west stands.

Good crowds are expected also to the remaining three home games, with West Texas State, Tulsa, and Hardin-Simmons.

Wilson said that a few season books remain available at $19.50 each plus 25 cents for mailing. Single game reserved admissions are $8.50 for A&M. General admission tickets are $2 for the A&M contest.

Orders now in the Athletic Office will probably be filled within the next two weeks, Wilson added.

First Place Tigers Remain Unconquered

The picture remains the same in the College Station Recreation Council Men's Softball League—the Tigers rolling along undefeated in first place.

In last week's play, the Bengals picked up another victory, their fourth without defeat, to move further ahead. Tied for second place are the Vets and The Tired Nine, each with a 2-1 record. They are trailed by the Flashes, the Eagles, and the Duffers.

Tomorrow's double-header sends the Tigers versus the Duffers and the Vets against the Flashes. In Saturday's twin-bill, the 6 p.m. game matches the Eagles and The Tired Nine, and the 8 p.m. tussle pits the Duffers against the Flashes at the intramural diamond south of The Grove.

Last week-end's action found the Tigers bouncing The Tired Nine, 9-0; the Vets downed the Duffers, 6-3; in a 19-3 mauling, the Eagles topped the Duffers.
