Tennis Trophy Won By Local Girl

By MAURICE OLIAN

College Station's Susan Dowell, 16-year-old A & M Consolidated High School junior, recently returned from a brief but successful tennis tour in which she won the 18-and-under girls' singles championship of the Greenville Open Tennis Tournament.

The daughter of A & M tennis coach, W. M. Dowell, she proved why she was seeded number one in the Greenville meet in 18-and-under girls' singles, as three opponents fell by identical scores.

Extremely unique was the fact that all three of Miss Dowell's foes—Barbara Andrews of Sherman, Mary Jane Norrell of Sherman, and Sandra Wickel of Greenville—met defeat in identical fashion, bowing 6-2, 6-0 on each occasion.

In 18-and-under girls' doubles in the Greenville tourney, Miss Dowell, with Greenville's Becky Crabtree as her partner, lost her first-round match to the eventual tournament champions in this division, Garland's Martha Walker and Donna Cleland. The score was 6-1, 6-1.

Prior to the Greenville Open, Miss Dowell—one of three members of Coach Horace Schaffer's strong 1957 A & M Consolidated tennis squad to advance as far as the state quarter-finals—competed in the Garland Open Tennis Tournament.

Participating in the 18-and-under division in this meet also, the College Station netter dropped her initial singles clash to Rosemary Strain of Frost, 6-2, 7-5.

She fared better in the doubles, where she paired with Garland's Donna Cleland. They stroked their way to a 6-3, 6-1 victory over Carole Patrick and Bonnie Patrick of Wichita Falls, only to tumble in the semi-finals before Garland's Martha Walker and Ann Williams, 6-2, 6-2.

2 Hour, 52 Minute Play Highlight Of Weeks Action

For the second time within three weeks, the Concrete Tennis Courts are teeming with activity, and once again the reason is a county-wide tennis tournament.

This time, it is the 1957 Brazos County Tennis Tournament, a ten-day event which is being sponsored by the Bryan Recreation Department and the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Play, which began Monday morning and has been continuing daily, is being held in two divisions—senior (16-and-over) and junior (15-and-under).

Under the direction of Tournament Director Pete Newman, the tourney is scheduled to last through next Wednesday.

Of the 28 matches which had been played through Wednesday morning, the longest one of them all was a two-hour-and-fifty-two minute encounter in the junior division boys' doubles semi-finals which saw the duo of Ray Berry and Jack Putz defeat the team of Joe Olian and Hal Delaplane, 2-6, 6-0, 13-11.

Other matches in which the contestants were forced to play three sets before a winner was determined included a 6-1, 4-6, 6-2 win by Ken Ream over Joe Remstedt in the senior division men's singles; a 4-6, 6-2, 6-1 victory by David Cardwell over Ream in the senior division men's singles quarter-finals; and a 6-4, 2-6, 6-0 triumph by Pam Sperry over Margaret Carpenter in the junior division girls' singles semi-finals.
