The INSIDE Story

of a man who is going places

Slocum P. Prunewick is a man who seems to be marked for bigger things. At least his classmates and his profs think so. Slocum is such an interesting guy! No trouble to talk to. Keeps a conversation hopping along. Definitely knows what's going on in the world — and why. His conversational ammunition supply is always adequate and timely. Slocum himself probably doesn't realize how much of that ammunition replenishing comes from his Battalion. All he knows is that when he gets back to his sack in the evening he feels a little out of touch with things and can't wait to grab his Battalion and get back in tune. That's Slocum, the interesting guy who's going places. Why don't you try Slocum's plan and see how good it makes you feel?
