The square jawed field boss of the Cards made no bones about how tough it was to lose that one last night.

"Four games aren't easy to overcome," he said. "but remember the New York Giants in 1951they did it."

He felt the Cards still will be within striking distance when they reach Milwaukee for a three-game series Sept. 23, 24, 25. Hutch's club disappointed crowd of 22,468 by failing to score on 10 hits in the first five innings. They then handed Brooklyn four unearned runs on three errors in the seventh and eighth.

The manager and his players were philosophical about it. They had won 11 of 13 since Labor Day, Hutch pointed out, and for the season have done "about as well as
