And Another Makes Three

Lines for registration, chow and now for brushing teeth! Such is the case for Ray Han, Charles Wood and Roger Shandley who share a room in Hart Hall.

Many Dorms Have Tripled-up Rooms

Too many men and not enough rooms is the problem of many Corps outfits as heavy registration dumped unexpected numbers into the outfits.

First sergeants have the problem of finding somewhere to put cadets. One of the most crowded sections of the Corps is the infantry battalion in Dorm 4.

"Our problem is that we have more men than we did last year and less room," said James Edward Ayers, first sergeant of "C" Infantry. "Some of our sophomores had to spend the first couple of nights on the floor until we could get some beds moved in for them."

"At the first of school we had 82 men to live in 34 rooms," said Ayers. "We had nine or 10 men who didn't even show up for school."

REMEMBER ?

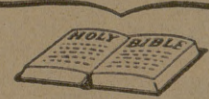

Being a child isn't nearly so much fun when it's happening, as it is when you look back on it!

Somehow we remember, when we get a little older, just how much better strawberry shortcake tasted then, and how special each day seemed. We forget the scraped knees, the hurt feelings, the times when we were naughty and got punished!

Most of us belonged to some particular church in our childhood. Looking back, it often seems like it was the best church in the world. Yet . . . like so much of what we remember of childhood . . . it wasn't, really—BECAUSE ALL CHURCHES ARE WONDERFUL.

"In My Father's House Are Many Mansions." Jesus wasn't speaking of earthly houses. Yet, on earth, God has many mansions too. Your church . . . anybody's church . . . is one of them.

Go to Church this Sunday, especially if you haven't been for a while. You'll find that going to church now is a lot better than just remembering the church of your childhood.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
