

Gov. Daniel Shocked By Ike's Troop Use

AUSTIN, (AP)—Gov. Price Daniel yesterday asked President Eisenhower whether he means to "occupy with troops every nonintegrated school in the south."

The Texas governor sent a telegram to the President saying "I am shocked at your action in Arkansas" and asking him to reconsider.

Daniel dispatched the telegram after reading news stories telling of Eisenhower's move federalizing the Arkansas National Guard.

Earlier yesterday the governor said he hoped Eisenhower "will not make the mistake of using federal troops" in the Little Rock integration controversy.

Daniel's telegram said: "In view of your numerous precious statements against the use of force and federal troops in integration controversies and your requests for congressional approval before using troops even in foreign lands, I am shocked at your action in Arkansas. "Mr. President, federal force, troops, guns and bayonets are reminiscent of the tactics of reconstruction days which even President Lincoln opposed. It was not until force and federal troops were removed that peace, order and respect for the law returned to the South, and so will it be this time.

"Does this mean you will occupy with troops every non integrated school in the South? If so, your action will destroy the public school systems and good will among the races which most of us in the South have labored so hard to preserve. Even the Supreme Court said we should be given reasonable time to solve this problem and I know of no one who has advocated a solution by force of arms.

"I respectfully urge that you reconsider your action in the light of your previous advocacy of patience and good will."

Different Story By Gerard's Witness

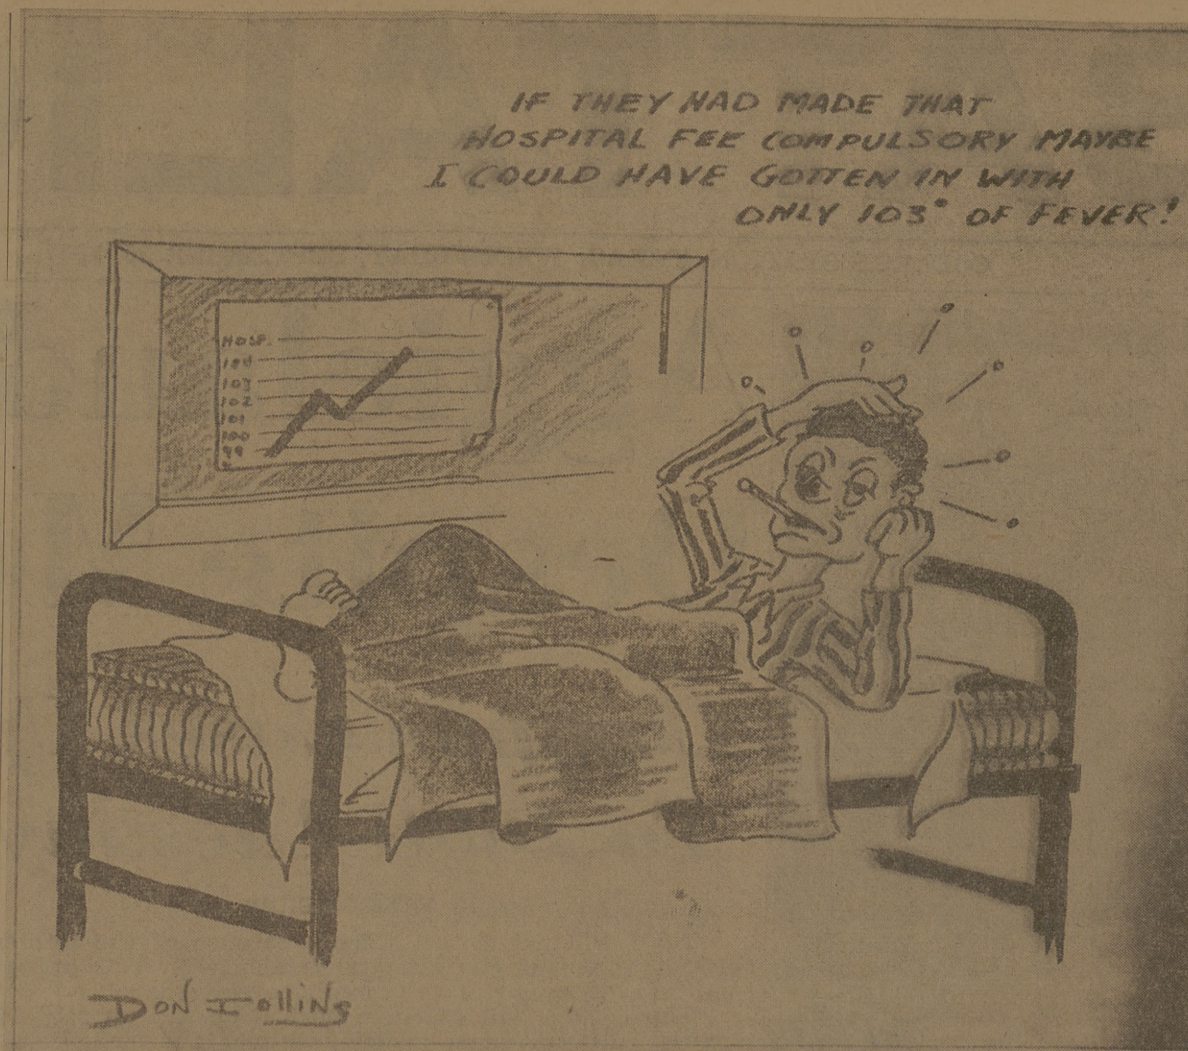

SOMAGAHARA, Japan, (AP)—The only American to see William S. Girard fire at a Japanese woman scrap collector testified yesterday that "actually, I don't think he meant to do it." He said Girard fired as a joke.

But the testimony of soldier Victor Nickel, Ikster, Mich., differed on three points with that of Girard's. Nickel shared a foxhole with Girard at the U. S. Army firing range here Jan. 30 just before Mrs. Naka Sakai was fatally wounded by the Ottawa, Ill., soldier.

Local Kiwanians Sell Box Lunches

Box lunches will again be sold by the Kiwanis Club on the highways approaching College Station at all home football games except the University of Texas game.

The Kiwanians will sell the lunches, again packed with chicken, at both the night games and the one day game with the exception of the Texas game. The selling of the lunches will close at the stations for the night games at 7:15 p. m. so the men can see the game if they wish.

'Enemies Abroad Gloat' On Little Rock Status

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Eisenhower declared last night that "our enemies" abroad are gloating over the school segregation troubles in Little Rock.

He appealed to citizens of Arkansas to assist in bringing to an immediate end all interferences with the law.

The President went on the air to explain to the American public why he had ordered federal troops into Little Rock in order to enforce his command that persons he said were obstructing justice must cease and desist, and disperse.

"In that city," Eisenhower said, "under the leadership of demagogic extremists, disorderly mobs have deliberately prevented the carrying out of proper orders from a federal court.

"Local authorities have not eliminated that violent opposition and, under the law, I yesterday issued a proclamation calling upon the mob to disperse."

The federal court orders he referred to were those of Judge Ronald Davies, who ordered compliance with a plan for integrating Negroes into the hitherto all white Central High School. Nine Negroes entered, but were removed after a mob battled around the school yesterday.

AEC Reports Red Nuclear Explosion

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission announced last night that the Soviet Union has set off another nuclear explosion in its current series of weapons tests.

An AEC spokesman indicated the blast was that of a hydrogen bomb with an explosive force equivalent to a million tons of TNT. Statement by AEC Chairman Lewis S. Strauss said it was in the "megaton range." The usual supposition is that this range of power means a hydrogen bomb, the spokesman noted.

The announcement said the latest detonation occurred Sept. 24 at a site north of the Arctic Circle. The last explosion noted by the United States was Sunday Sept. 8.

It was the third nuclear explosion in the U.S.S.R. announced by the United States since Aug. 22.

An announcement heard in London over the Moscow radio about the time of the AEC's announcement said that the Soviet army and navy are training with atomic and hydrogen weapons.

Eisenhower said that "certain misguided persons, many of them imported into Little Rock by agitators," have insisted upon defying the law and sought to bring it into disrepute.

The President didn't name names in his address from the White House.

Eisenhower flew here from his vacation spot in Rhode Island to deliver the speech.

In midafternoon there was another historic flight this one of 500 regular Army soldiers of the 101st Airborne Division, ordered to Little Rock under instructions of the President.

The 9,900 men of the Arkansas National Guard were brought under federal control, to be used as necessary to enforce the federal court order for intergration of Little Rock's Central High.

PLEA FROM PICKFORD

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Former actress Mary Pickford has challenged the men who built the hydrogen bomb and crashed the sound barrier to do something about zippers.

"I was caught in a zipper for 25 minutes," the one-time movie star told a national education conference here. "Where are the scientists and engineers in this country that they can't do something about zippers?"

Man to Man

By JOE TINDEL

For the first time, the Battalion editor will attempt to organize a few chosen remarks from all phases of campus, city, state and national life which he hopes will interest readers.

As is probably evident, The Battalion is doing quite a few things different this year and adding new features to make the paper more enjoyable.

Starting yesterday and running once each week, for, we hope, the remainder of the year, is a new column by Welton Jones called "Art for Aggies' Sake".

The staff would appreciate any remarks about the column.

Next week Joe Buser, news editor, will begin his column, "Off the Cuff". He'd probably appreciate your offering any tasty tidbits at any time.
