Mrs. Harrington To Entertain At Lawn Party For Newcomers

Mrs. M. T. Harrington will be hostess to the Newcomers Club at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon with a garden party at her home.

The affair will open the 20th season of the club, a branch of the Women's Social Club of A&M.

Traditionally, the party will offer an opportunity for wives of new members of the A&M faculty and staff to become acquainted with other members of the group.

Purposes of the club will be explained and the program of the coming year outlined.

Regular meetings of the club are held on the first and third Wednesdays of each month.

Planned programs, held in the

New Officers Of Study Club Honored At Tea

Campus Study Club entertained members and guests Tuesday afternoon at a tea honoring incoming officers.

Officers in the receiving line at the affair, held in the Memorial Student Center, were Miss Jennie Oliver, president; Mrs. R. B. Bossler, Mrs. C. F. Pruitt, Mrs. B. F. K. Mullins, Mrs. Bardin Nelson and Mrs. J. C. Brusse.

Also present to receive were Mrs. A. G. Nixon, president of the Women's Club; Mrs. G. O. Hoffman, president of the Extension Service Club; Mrs. R. B. Reid, representing Beta Sigma Phi, and Mrs. R. J. Fickey, representing the Reading Club.

Centering the tea table was an autumn arrangement of chrysanthemums, straw flowers and fruit in two crystal cornucopias, flanked by yellow candles in silver candelabra. Mrs. R. L. Brown arranged the decorations.

During the afternoon Mrs. Brown and Mrs. C. W. Crawford, life members of the club, presided at the coffee service. Mrs. W. S.

Sixty Attend Coffee Given By Churches

Sixty women gathered Monday morning at the A&M Presbyterian Church for the newcomer's coffee sponsored by the College Station Council of Church Women.

At the business meeting held following the coffee hour, the following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Harold Sorensen, president; Mrs. Robert Bossler, first vice president; Mrs. W. O. Parker, second vice president; Mrs. Ira Scott, secretary, and Mrs. Bob Andrews, treasurer.

The outgoing vice president, Mrs. Norman Anderson, presided at the meeting. Mrs. C. B. Campbell extended a welcome to the group, and Mrs. W. C. Adams offered the devotional on "Faith."

A review of the early organization of the council was given by Mrs. Anderson. It was announced that the council will send $25 to the Austin State School for mentally retarded children, to be added to the chapel fund.

Farm Show Slated By Houston C of C

Texas vegetables and fruits will take the spotlight at the Farm Products Exposition in Houston Nov. 22-24, along with produce from throughout the country and from Central and South America.

The show, held in observance of Farm-City Week, is sponsored by the Agriculture Committee of the Houston Chamber of Commerce, and will be accommodated in the 3-year-old, $3½ million Produce Terminal.

Demonstration of freezing of fruits and vegetables and display of all types of agricultural machinery and equipment will be added attractions to the "rabbit" show.

TRAINER LOSES SOME EQUIPMENT

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP)—Marion Clark, trainer for the Sioux City Soos of the Western League, got his pants pocket caught on the door handle of a passing car. The embarrassed Clark, clad only in shorts, hastily waved the woman driver on after assuring her he was unhurt.

Oceanography and Meteorology Wives elected officers at their first business meeting of the fall semester Tuesday evening.

Elected were La Vonne Jacobs, president; Frances Schmidt, vice president; Cornelia Hanna, recording secretary; Gladys Steshko, corresponding secretary; Kathy Kuhnman, treasurer; Betty Traganza, historian, and Mary Carter, representative to the Aggie Wives Council.

A social — featuring a white elephant exchange and bingo—is planned by the Electrical Engineering Wives for 8 p. m. Monday in the south solarium of the YMCA. Refreshments will be served by Mary Swail and Sheridan Taack.

Further information may be obtained and transportation arrangements made by calling Norma Koch, VI 6-5492, after 5:30 p. m.

Freshman AVMA Wives Club will hold its monthly business meeting at 8 p. m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Marva Beasley, 3404 College Rd., Apartment 6B. Co-hostess will be Mrs. Mary Ann Arnim.

Hostesses for this evening's meeting of the Aggie Wives Bridge Club will be Frances Reno and Jane Champion, regular group; Fran Mercier and Barbara Pucciarello, intermediates, and Barbara Bate-man and Betty Wimberley, beginners.

After tonight's meeting, the beginners group will be closed to new members.

Last week prizes were won by Frances Reno and Beverly Millsat in the regular group and by Dixie

Lee Davis, Betty Morris and Jerry Long in the intermediate group.

A business meeting of the Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology Wives Club will be held at 7:30 p. m. Monday in the seminar room on the fourth floor of the Agriculture Building.

Co-sponsor of the group this year with Mrs. Tyrus Timm will be Mrs. R. E. Branson.

Animal Husbandry Wives will meet at 7:30 tonight in the south solarium of the YMCA for a back-to-school party. All past and present animal husbandry wives are invited.

Marinate canned asparagus stalks in a spicy dressing and serve with hard-cooked eggs and greens for a luncheon salad.
