Navy Tanker Strikes Reef

HONOLULU, (AP)—The 45 man crew of a Navy tanker, its hull ruptured by a Pacific reef, awaited aid tonight from a landing ship tank—LST.

Six foot swells were hitting the stern of the oiler Mission San Miguel on Maro Reef about 750 miles northwest of Honolulu. The Navy said the tanker's crew apparently was in no danger and the men could be removed in an emergency by the LST. The oiler grounded about 2:14 a. m. EST today and flashed an SOS shortly afterward, saying her hull was ruptured.

Social Whirl

Mrs. J. O. Alexander, chairman of the local Easter Seal campaign, and Lenore "Buddy" Lanoux, physical therapist from the Brazos County Crippled Children's Therapy Center in Bryan, were guest speakers Monday night at the meeting of Industrial Education Wives held in the YMCA.

Topic of their talks was "Physical Therapy." Both described the newly organized Crippled Children's Center and the therapy work being done there.

Refreshments of coffee and homemade cookies were enjoyed at the conclusion of the meeting.

Animal Husbandry Wives will hold their first meeting of the year at 7:30 p. m. today in the south solarium of the YMCA. All past and prospective members are urged to attend.

The club will sell coffee, cookies and hamburgers at the Aggie rodeo.

Aggie Wives Bridge Club will meet at 7:30 tonight in the Memorial Student Center.

Hostesses will be Toni Rothpletz and Connie Croslin for the intermediate group; Sue Bresie and Roberta Ash, for the regulars, and Lynda Dodson and Gloria Duke, for the beginners.

Intermediate winners last week were Connie Croslin and Jean Tucker; in the regular group, Marilyn Ibtson and Jackie Davis, with Lillian Powers winning the slam prize.

Rug Group of the A&M Women's Social Club will meet at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday in the home of the hostess, Mrs. Chester O'Donnell, 315 Lee Ave. South.

A get-acquainted social for all wives club presidents, delegates and sponsors is planned by the Aggie Wives Council for 8 p. m. Monday in the cabinet room of the YMCA.

College Clerks To Attend Class

Ladies engaged in clerical work on A&M campus will have two half-day orientation programs to be held at the Memorial Student Center Tuesday.

All women clerical staff members employed by the College will attend one of the half day sessions on office procedures which is sponsored by the A&M College System, R. A. Downward, system personnel officer, said.

Virginia B. Long from Southern Methodist University will be the principal lecturer. She is chairman of Business Education Department of the School of Business Administration at SMU. Her special fields of interest are business letter writing, business report writing and office management. She is also an author of "Business Letter Writing," a text and training manual widely used in business colleges and industrial training courses.

Morning session of the Tuesday meeting will begin at 8:30 and end at noon; the afternoon session begins at 1:15.
