

Pollywogs Rampage Over Fish, 20-6 Few Runs Kickoff 85 Yards for TD

By JIM CARRELL

A complete reversal of form by the A&M Fish combined with the fleet backs and bulky line of the TCU Wogs to give the Ft. Worth visitors a 20-6 victory here Thursday night.

A porous Fish defense yielded 314 rushing yards to speedy backs like Harry Moreland and R. E. Dodson.

Jon Few of Midlothian again turned in a spectacular performance, returning a Wog kickoff 85 yards for a touchdown and leading in Fish rushing with 34 yards on eight carries.

The Wogs opened scoring 12 minutes deep in the first quarter when Moreland from the Fish 12, found a gaping hole at right tackle and sprinted to the five where the ball was fumbled free. He recovered on the run in Oklahoma style and dove into the end zone for the score. Dodson converted to give the Wogs a 7-0 lead.

A Wog kickoff following the TD found the Fish offside and a Jack Estes return of 18 yards to the Fish 35 was nullified when the Wogs chose to take the five yard penalty.

It was the costliest infraction of the night, for the Wogs, as Few hauls in the ensuing kickoff on his own 15 and behind the best Fish blocking of the night, finds daylight up the middle, cuts to the right at midfield and breaks clear to score standing up. His extra point attempt was blocked.

TCU scored again in the third quarter when Roy Rambo blocked Murry Berry's punt into the end zone where the Wogs Bob Lilly recovered for the TD. Dodson converted.

Leading 14-6, the Wogs took advantage of a short punt by Allen Francis to score in six plays from the Fish 40. The conversion attempt was missed.

Dodson ripped the Fish line for 112 yards in 24 carries while the lightning-fast Moreland gained 85 yards in 15 tries.

Jim Harrison gained 26 yards in five attempts for the Fish to follow Few in rushing.

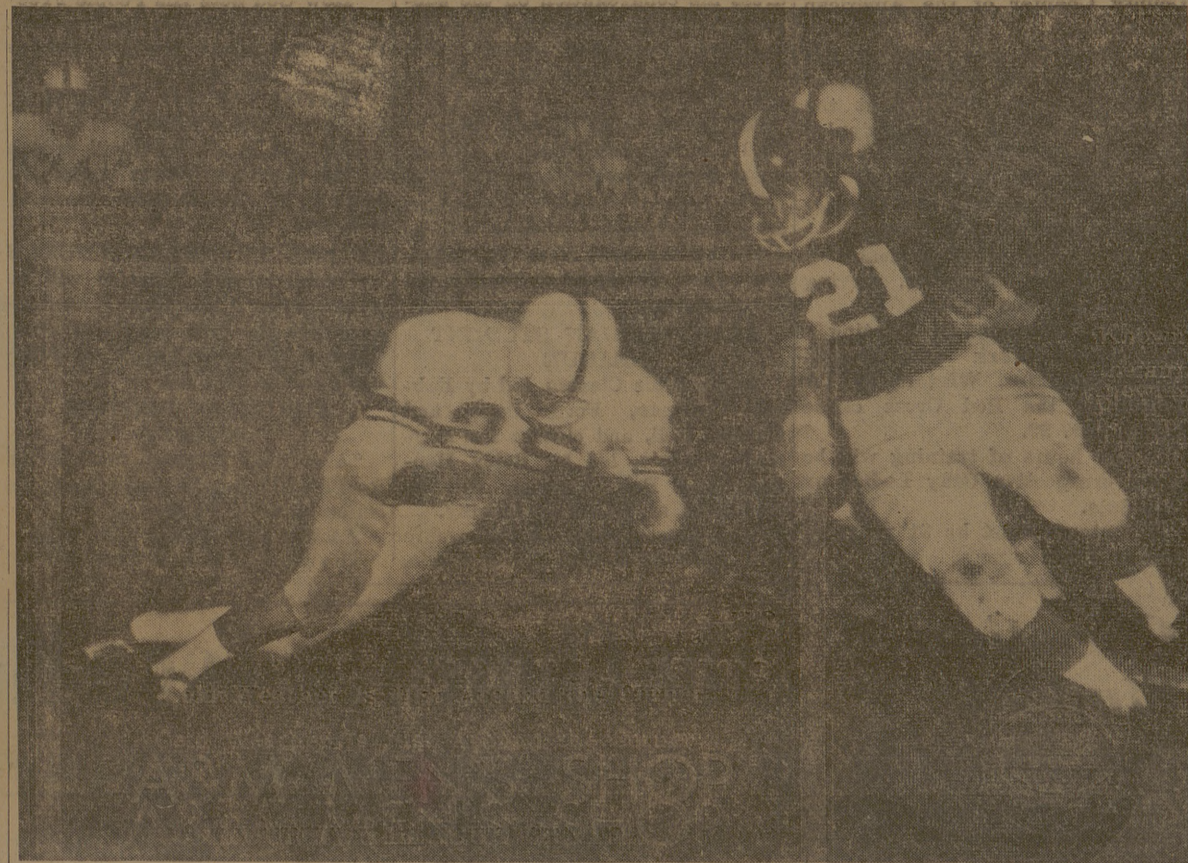

Seldom during the evening were the lighter Fish forwards able to clear holes for the backs and the defense was a complete turnabout from their play against the Houston Kittens last week.

Roy Northrup, 185-pound center from Amarillo, was individually, far and away the best Fish lineman of the night, recovering two Wog fumbles and making tackles all over the field.

Other defensive stalwarts for the Fish were Wayne Labar and Jim Landrum from linebacker slots, tackle Jerry Peveto, guard Dick Kirtle and end Tom Moore.

Valley Club Meets

The Rio Grande Valley Home Town Club meets tonight at 7:30 in room 2D of the MSC to discuss the Thanksgiving party and social functions.

Pollywog Back Spilled

Aggie halfback, Hursel Henson (25) is set to spill Wog ball-carrier Jim Dodson in first quarter of last night's game. Coming up in pursuit are (l. to r.) Jerry Peveto, 74; Richard Kirtley, 67; and Tom Moore, 86. The Pollywogs dumped the Fish, 20-6.

Intramurals

Jim Nolan, center for A Composite, hit for 12 points Wednesday to lead his team to a 46-6 rout of B Engineers.

In Tuesday's bowling Carter Barcus of C Engineers bowled high game for the day with a fine 182, but only a pin behind him was the 181 total by Larry Peabody of Squadron 3. Squadron 3 had the highest team total at 488.

Swimmers Set Initial Meetings

A&M swimmers will hold their first meeting of the year October 14 and 15 in the stands in P. L. Downs Natatorium.

The freshmen will meet on October 14 at 5 p. m. and the varsity will meet on October 15 at 5 p. m.

Coach Art Adamson said this meeting would include all men who wish to try out.

Tetsuo Okamoto is the defending conference champ in the 440 yard, 220 yard and 1500 meter freestyle.

'Fish' Yell Leaders Chosen In Tryouts

Ted Lowe, head yell leader, yesterday announced the five freshmen yell leaders for the 1957 grid season after studying a field of about 175 candidates vying for the posts.

The freshmen leaders include Larry Ayers, "B" AAA, from Paris; Rex Ethridge, "B" FA, from Corpus Christi; Roger Terry, "A" AAA, from Mercedes; James Noack, Squadron 14, from Waco; and Richard Andrews, Squadron 21, from La Porte.

Lowe named two alternate yell leaders to the group, who are to stand-in in case of absences. They are Seymour Bauer, Squadron 8, from Houston and Maurice Howell, Squadron 14, from Dallas.

The new "fish" yell leaders officially led their classmates for the first time last night when the "Fightin' Fish" met the Texas Christian Pollywogs in Kyle Field.

CHS Hosts Sealy Tonight; Kavanaugh Out With Injury

By JOHNNY BARGER
CHS Sports Correspondent

Tonight finds the A&M Consolidated Tigers playing host to the Sealy High team. Game time is eight p. m. on Tiger Field.

The Tigers have a chance to even their record to a 3-3 mark if they win tonight. This season they have beaten Madisonville and Bremond, while losing to Cleveland, Rockdale, and last week to Giddings.

Sealy on the other hand after losing early in the season to Tomball, has won two games in a row, over Columbus and Pearland.

The Sealy group is coached by O. V. Chafin who was mentor here at Consolidated for the years 1949-52.

Billy Kavanaugh, 175-pound fullback, will not be in the starting lineup this week because he suffered a shoulder injury last week in the game with Giddings. However, he will be ably replaced by John Wayne Todd.

"Your flight number is 511, Sir."

On the telephone, too, service is faster if you know the right number

Knowing your flight number will save you time and trouble at the airport. And the same thing is true about long distance telephone numbers. When you call by number you get faster service. There are no time wasting delays going through "Information." Keep a list handy of the local and long distance numbers you call most frequently. Then you can be sure of the right number and get still faster telephone service.
