Cougars Unimpressive in Loss; Cadets Set Sights for Frogs

By GARY ROLLINS
Battalion Sports Editor

Quite possibly, the most appropriate thing the Cougars could have done last Saturday night was to have stayed home in Houston and watched the films of their impressive victory over Miami University.

To quote a famous SWC coach, "you don't win games in the newspapers." The decisive Aggie victory over Houston might be an indication that the Cougars aren't quite ready for the competition—having lost two games, both to conference teams.

Three senior buddies, John Crow, Roddy Osborne and Bobby Joe Conrad teamed up to spell defeat for the well-spoken Cougars.

The Aggies came out of their dressing room ready to play football, but it soon became evident that they were the only ones who wished to do so—although the Cougars did put up a little bit of a fight at halftime.

Aggies		Houston
14	First Downs	16
308	Yards Gained Rushing	102
12	Yards Gained Passing	190
2 of 2	Passes Completed	13 of 36
2	Passes Intercepted by	0
0	Opp. Fumbles Recovered	0
5 for 34.8	Punts, No., Avg.	5 for 29.2
7 for 87	Penalties, No., Yds.	7 for 63

Once again it was defense that won the game for the Cadets, as the Cougar backs—speediest in the nation—were caged up just as was the Houston mascot.

After four weeks of competition, the Farmers have the second best defense in the conference—second only to Texas Christian University.

On the other side of the board, the Aggies lead all the conference schools in net gain rushing with 1,047 yards total—for a 262 yard average rushing per game.

The Cadets also are second in total net gain, following Rice, with an average 310 yards per game.

The Houston game marked the last unofficial stop on the road to the Cotton Bowl. The Bryant version of the hopped-up tractor is now on the rocky road to Dallas and the Cotton Bowl, via Fort Worth, and the Texas Christian University Horned Frogs.

LAST WEEK'S RESULTS
Arkansas 20, Baylor 17; Oklahoma 21, Texas 7; Duke 7, Rice 6; Texas A&M 28, Houston 6; Texas Christian 28, Alabama 0; Missouri 7, Southern Methodist 6.

THIS WEEK'S SCHEDULE
Saturday—Texas A&M vs. Texas Christian at Fort Worth (day); Arkansas vs. Texas at Fayetteville (day); Baylor vs. Texas Tech at Lubbock (night); Rice vs. Southern Methodist at Dallas (night).

Cadet Cagers Open Drills; Conditioning Comes First

The Texas Aggies, dark-horse favorites of the Southwest Conference open drills this afternoon in G. Rollie White Coliseum, with 18 varsity cagers expected to report.

Coach Bobby Rogers, Cadet basketball coach who succeeds Ken Loeffler, announced that conditioning would be the password for the first two weeks of drills—to include ballhandling, dribbling and passing—and of course, plenty of running.

The Cadets, who posted a 7-17 record last season, seek to improve that mark in their first year under Rogers.

Only two seniors return, Ken Hutto of Amarillo and Fritzie Connally of San Antonio. Hutto was a conference scoring leader as a sophomore.

Also returning are junior lettermen Neil Swisher, 6-6 guard from Victoria; Ernie Turner, 6-3½ forward from Beaumont; Jack Schwake, 5-5½ forward from La-Grange; Tom Kelle, 6-4 guard from Inez; and Jim McNichol, 6-6 center from Philadelphia, Pa.

Up from the freshman squad are Wayne Lawrence, 6-9 center scoring sensation from Pawcatuck, Conn.; Dave Lawrence, 6-6 center from New Orleans, La.; Sammy Myers, 6-3½ forward from Beaumont.

Other squadmen expected to report are Bob Johnson, 6-2 letterman from the 1952 squad; Harry Max, 6-2 from San Antonio, James Anderson, 6-1 from Greenville; Richard Anderson, 6-1 from Houston; Hugh McBride, 6-2 from Houston Lamar; Tom Wallace, 6-1 from New Braunfels; and Joe Carl Leech, 5-11 from Brownwood.

Fish Sensation

Wayne Lawrence, 6-9 freshman scoring sensation, from Pawcatuck, Conn. returns as a sophomore to give Aggie basketballers added height and shooting strength this season.

Taylor Recovers Onside Kick

Loyd Taylor, senior halfback and 2-year letterman from Roswell, N. M., recovers the onside kick in the first quarter of Saturday night's game. In hot pursuit is Houston's left end, Charles Mallia (80) and right tackle, Hogan Wharton (78). Supplying the blocking for the Aggies are Jim Stanley (60), Gordon LeBoeuf (37) and Carl Luna (74).
