Fish, Cub Tilt Postponed Indefinitely; Field Very Sloppy, Cadets Likewise

By GARY ROLLINS
 Battalion Sports Editor

The Fish-Cub football game, scheduled to be played tonight on Kyle Field has been postponed indefinitely, because of wet playing field. The game will be played at a later date.

For the first time this week, Coach Paul Bryant's Cadets moved outside for their regular practice session. After the Wednesday workout ended, Bryant said "It looked like we hadn't worked out in a week."

The practice field was a sea of mud, and because of the unfavorable conditions, the first two units did not get any contact work.

Although the team appeared to be sloppy, both "mentally and physically", the Aggie mentor stated "we can't make up for our not practicing on Monday and Tuesday by working the squad hard on Wednesday - nor can we work them hard Thursday for their poor showing Wednesday."

Grading results from last week's games found Darrell Brown, senior from Dayton, moving to first string guard, and Carl Luna and Tommy Howard advancing also.

This will be the first week the conference has a full schedule—and once again comes the time for those predictions.

I'll guess them like this:
 Texas A&M 21 TCU 6
 Rice 24 SMU 0
 Baylor 20 Texas Tech 12
 Arkansas 27 Texas 14

SPORT SLANT'S SWC HIGHLIGHTS

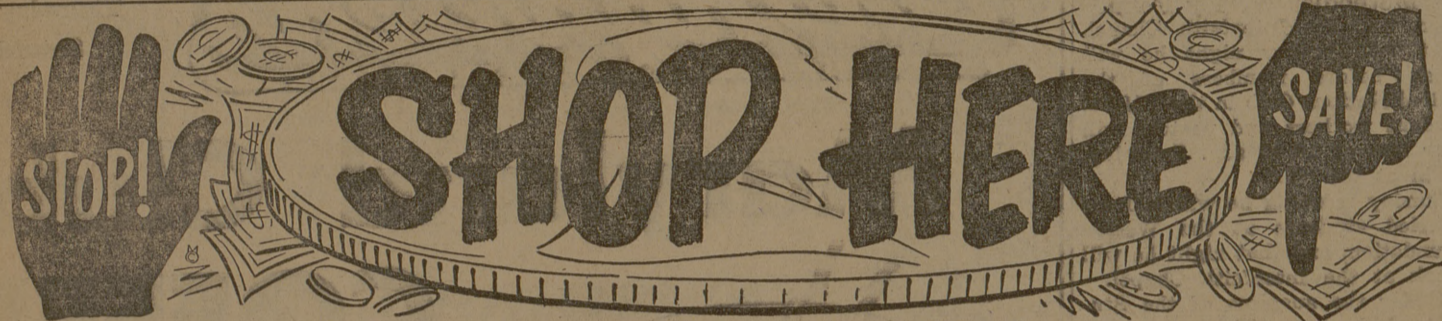

By The ASSOCIATED PRESS

FORT WORTH—Coach Abe Martin's TCU Horned Frogs divided Wednesday's practice session between defending Texas A&M plays, and adding a final light contact work. They suffered from injuries as they went into the final phase of preparation for Saturday afternoon's skirmish with the Aggies.

FAYETTEVILLE—Coach Jack Mitchell put his Arkansas Razorbacks through a soggy 45-minute scrimmage today as a third straight day of rain hampered preparations for the Texas game here Saturday.

WACO—Coaches applauded a visible sharpening of Baylor's defense after the Bears ran through a two-hour workout today.

In preparation for Saturday night's football game at Texas Tech in Lubbock, the Bears put contact stress on both defending their offensive passer and breaking up opposition tresses.
