CHS Wins 33-6

By JOHNNY BARGER

CHS ran its win streak to two Friday night as they socked the Navasota Rattlers, 33-6. Although the Rattlers seriously threatened to give the Bengals a real battle in the first half, the Tigers came back strong and coasted to a well-earned victory in their first district outing.

Bright spot for the Tigers was the fine running of halfback Alton Arnold, who picked up 142 yards during the night, and the excellent passing of quarterback Edgar Feldman.

Arnold had himself a field day as he scored three times on runs of 12 and 86 yards and on a three-yard pass from Feldman. Feldman was instrumental in two other Bengal scores as well. He ran 42 yards on the second play from scrimmage for the first Tiger score and during the latter stages of the game, passed 23 yards to Dee Smith for a TD.

Coach Dick Gardemal praised Arnold and Feldman as well as center David McNeely, and fullback Steadman Davis. The Tiger mentor felt that "the offense, as a whole, showed great improvement over earlier demonstrations." He was well pleased with the Tiger pass defense.

The Bengals relaxed at home Monday as they enjoyed their first day off from practice. The reason: the Tigers have an open date this weekend.

Finney's Pass to Lasater Too Tall

TCU's sophomore back Marvin Lasater (23) reaches high in the air to snare a pass from Frog quarterback Dick Finney but it sails over his head and out of the end zone. Aggies contesting for the pass are Marks (88), Gay (30), Crow (44) and in the background, Conrad (40).

Time after time, Texas Christian University heard opportunity knock in the contest last Saturday afternoon in Fort Worth, but they never had the power necessary to open the Aggie portals.

The Froggie offense was as frustrated as an Aggie senior without a date as they assaulted the Cadet double stripe on three occasions and received nothing more than did Texas Tech and Missouri.

GAME AT A GLANCE
First Downs	7 17
Rushing Yardage	80 292
Passing Yardage	42 14
Passes	4-5 4-13
Passes Intercepted by	1 0
Punts	8-37.8 3-30.3
Fumbles Lost	2 3
Yards Penalized	10 15

Statistically, the Horned Frogs ran the mighty Aggie team out of Amon Carter Stadium, but the all-deciding factor, (and rightfully so) the score, spelled another victory for Coach Paul Bryant's Farmers and left Abe Martin and Frogs once again looking forward to next year—for the third year in a row.

Merle Matthews, Bobbie Shaler, Gwen Hyde, Dottie Crouch, Betty Phillips and Chiyo Tashima comprised the only women's team in the Ingelwood Majors bowling but they won the Los Angeles Tournament by two games.

Finding cohabitation with Rev-ille on Kyle Field not to unpleasant, the Aggies turned to other animal friends for shelter by staging Monday's drills indoors on the turf of the Animal Husbandry Pavilion arena, after rain halted outdoor work.

The workout was a light one with the varsity in sweatsuits and a review of the TCU game movies found Ken Beck, Richard Gay, John Crow, Roddy Osborne, John Gilbert and Charles Krueger making the big plays.

Gay and Krueger were responsible for Lasater's fumble that Ken Beck recovered on the 10 to set up A&M's touchdown. Gay made "a jillion" tackles and was perhaps the outstanding defensive player for the day.

Crow with 40 yards gained half of the Aggie rushing total, recovered two fumbles, and made a timely pass interception at the A&M 8 to stop a serious Froggie threat.

Osborne threw the TD pass and Gilbert and Beck played fine, consistent football throughout.

A scouting report on the Baylor Bears by Coach Pat James served notice to A&M players that again they will be in for the fight of their lives and from a far more experienced ball club this time.

"For Baylor this will be their do-or-die effort," said James. "Texas, victory over Arkansas put them back in the running for the SWC crown. It was a great morale booster for the Bears.

"In the Miami game the whole Baylor squad suffered from the flu and nine of their ball players didn't make the trip to Lubbock to play Texas Tech," James continued.

Baylor defeated Villanova, 7-0, in their first game of the season; downed Houston with ease, 14-6; lost to Miami, 13-7; allowed the defeat to get the best of them and lost to Arkansas, 20-17 and then bounced back to whip upset-minded Texas Tech, 15-12.

San Angelo Forfeits, "Conduct Improper"

TRINIDAD, Colo., Oct. 21 (AP)—Trinidad football officials who worked last Saturday's game between San Angelo, Tex., and Trinidad Junior Colleges, today accused the Texas team of unsportsmanlike conduct and foul play.

The officials charged the visiting coach, Max Bumgardner, apparently was unable to control or maintain discipline over his squad. The game ended abruptly in the third quarter with the score tied 14-14 and Trinidad in possession of the ball on the San Angelo one yard line. The Rams from Texas had drawn five 15-yard penalties for roughness and unsportsmanlike conduct before Bumgardner took his team off the field.

Referee Frank Martinez ordered the game forfeited with the score 1-0 for Trinidad.

Martinez, who lives here has been officiating 15 years. Bumgardner, in San Angelo, described him as incompetent.

The San Angelo team, Martinez said, "was the most unsportsmanlike club I ever worked with. The coach wasn't able to control his players and prevent their persistent slugging and other fouls."

Umpire Wee Stancato, an official for about 20 years, said the San Angelo defensive unit was the chief offender. Both he and Martinez said most of the penalties against the Texans were inflicted for unnecessary roughness in pile-ups and after play ended.

Field judge Bill Kancilia, also of Trinidad, said improper language and improper conduct along the sidelines caused him to eject one Texan from the game and to inflict penalties.

Head linesman Sam Incitti was not available for comment.

The officials said Bumgardner was informed before the game that it would be played under national federation high school rules adopted by most junior colleges. The officials said the Texas coach conferred with his squad regarding the rules in the bus before the game.

Intramurals

Rain continues to hamper the intramural athletic program, forcing numerous postponements in the past two weeks of both outdoor and indoor sports.

The basketball program has been slowed up since the football team uses the two field houses to work-out in since they can't go outdoors.

All of Monday's activities were postponed with the exception of basketball. Most of last week's schedule was run off.

In the outstanding defensive effort of the year by a 'mural team, Don Alexander and Don Frels, with 10 and six points respectively, led B Field to a 17 to 0 win over Squadron 1. Bill Clifford hit for 12 points, helping Squadron 21 to a 29-18 win over A Chemical.

Thursday's games found Loyd Neal stealing the show as top scorer, meshing 15 points, to pace C Infantry to a 24-19 verdict over Squadron 23. A-AAA eked by Squadron 14 on Claudie Wright's nine points.

R. L. Stallings bowled a fine 192 game to lead his Squadron 12 teammates to a 475-455 margin against B Infantry.

College View walloped Puryear Hall, 34-19, in Civilian basketball. Frank Moebus hit for 15 points for College View and W. Belford had 10 points.
