

Cadets Retreat To Golf Course In Preparation for Bruin Tilt

By GARY ROLLINS
Battalion Sports Editor

The A&M College Golf Course dubbed for Kyle Field yesterday as the Aggie gridgers moved onto the fairways in search of high, dry ground to hold their workout.

The session, which included some scrimmaging for the third unit, started an hour earlier but still lasted almost two hours as the Cadets honed their attack for Baylor's rugged Bears.

Coach Paul Bryant expressed his unhappiness over the practice session as he described his squad as "slow as molasses and still not looking like a team in the middle of their season."

After sharpening the Cadet passing attack, and practicing a short while on the kicking game, the squad settled down to playing defense against Baylor's offensive plays.

The Bruins boast one of the most effective passing attacks in the nation, and so far this year have thrown for four touchdowns and connected on aials for 478 yards.

The Aggie offensive game, which didn't get much of a workout in the hard-fought game against TCU, was stressed, as was the quick kick.

Baylor quarterbacks Doyle Traylor and Buddy Humphreys teamed up to pass 31 times against the University of Houston. In that game alone, end Jerry Marcontell snagged five flips for 25 yards gained as Traylor completed 11 tosses.

The Farmers are seeking their sixth straight victory of the season, as Baylor looks for its first SWC win.

The Farmer defense will be severely tested by the Bruins' Larry Hickman, the bulldozing fullback who is the second leading ball-carrier in the Southwest Conference with 291 yards gained and a 4.4 yard-per-carry average.

The Saturday clash of the two Southwest Conference Titans is already a sellout, and due to a game at nearby Sam Houston State College, within the "100-mile radius" the tilt will not be televised.

Alphonse Halimi, the French-Algerian who holds the world's bantamweight boxing title, has won every pro bout he fought.

Back of the Week

Roddy Osborne, senior quarterback from Gainesville, displays the arm which threw the precious touchdown pass that beat TCU and made him Dallas Morning News "Back of the Week."

Osborne Picked Back-of-week

Roddy Osborne, A&M's number one quarterback, was chosen the Back-of-the-week in the SWC, being accompanied by Buddy Dial of Rice, who was chosen Lineman-of-the-week.

Osborne, who many Frog fans thought had fallen to the fast rushing of the TCU line, calmly reversed his field on an option play and completed the scoring pass to Bobby Marks last Saturday in Ft. Worth.

The senior quarterback from Gainesville, completed the only other pass he threw, a 13-yarder, made four tackles and broke up one TCU assault of the A&M goal by breaking up a pass in an unusual manner. He batted it back into the passer Marvin Lasater's hands and then dumped him for no gain at the 10-yard line.

Longest scoring play in Syracuse football history was made by Chester Bowman in 1923 when he carried a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown against William and Mary.
